N. Y. Writer Faces Peonage Charge

AFRICANS HELD AS SLAVES IN N. Y., REPORTED

NEW YORK (ANP)—Formal request for investigation which may lead to peonage charges against Linton Wells, writer and explorer, of New York and Mount Kisco, has been filed by attorneys retained by Civil Rights congress of New York, with the civil liberties division of the department of justice, at Washington and U. S. Dist. Atty. John F. X. McGoheny, Dash-jell Hammett, president of CRCNY announced this week.

The complaint, which involves Mr. Wells' relation with two Negro servants he brought over from Angola, Portuguese South Africa, were filed personally by Isidore Englander at Washington, and by letter with the New York District attorney. Investigation with a view to possible prosecution under the federal peonage statutes was asked.

Facts on which the complaint is based were outlined in the formal request filed with the department of justice and the district attorney. They showed that:

Linton Wells, of 125 E. 72nd street, New York and of Crow Hill Road, Mt. Kisco, N. Y., in his travels in Angola obtained the services of Abel Chicuta and Joseph Antonio, both natives of Angola, as domestic servants. In 1946, when Wells returned to the United States, he brought the two men with him, making all arrangements as to passports and visas, and putting them on a ship where they worked part of the time in part payment of their passage.

They were taken to Mr. Wells home on 72nd street, where they worked from six in the morning until nine at night, were fed only cream of wheat and sausages and were paid $11 a month cash.

Chicuta has claimed that when he asked for his passport and other documents, he was told by Mr. Wells that he would not give them to him until he sent them back to Angola, as he had too much money invested in the two men to let them go free, as they would if he gave them the papers.

On one occasion, Chicuta claims, when he and Antonio left the house for a short time, Mr. Wells caused them to be arrested, and when he came to the police station

MRS. J. W. HALL, PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHER, BURIED

Funeral services for Mrs. Ozella Hall, public school teacher, were held Tuesday afternoon in her home at 507 W. 29th street, with Father James G. Jones, vicar of St. Philip's Episcopal church, officiating.

Mrs. Hall who suffered a lingering illness during the past four years, died in the Centenary hospital Friday following an operation of Wednesday. She was taken there only the day before.

The wife of J. Wallace Hall, former insurance executive, and well known businessman, Mrs. Hall was granted a leave of absence in May, 1942 and remained until her death unable to perform her duties as a teacher because of illness.

Born in Glasgow, Mo., she moved at an early age with her parents to Quincy, Ill., where she finished the grade and high schools. After being graduated from the Illinois Normal college, there she taught school for five years in Quincy after which she came here in 1923.

She was awarded a B.S. degree from Butler university, following which she did work toward a master's degree at Illinois and Chicago universities. Highly trained and rich in teaching experience that permitted a highly efficient approach to the problems of the classroom, Mrs. Hall was highly successful at Schools 26, 24, 42 and 23 where she taught 16 years.

At the time of her leave she was teaching at School 42.

She was married to Mr. Hall in Louisville, Ky., in 1928 at the time he was an executive with an insurance company there. She was active for many years in religious circles as a member of St. Philip's and the St. Monica's Guild. She was also a member of the Hubbard Center and the Zeta Phi Beta sorority. During her school career, Mrs. Hall did post graduate work on a master's degree at Illinois and Chicago universities, having been graduated also from Butler university here.

Surviving are, beside the husband, a brother, Ruben Bass, city. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery with the C. M. C. Willis and Son, Mortuary, conducting.

FRISBIE HITS FASCIST TRENDS

GOOD FELLOWS ASK HELP NOW IN BRINGING XMAS CHEER TO NEEDY

Hundreds of needy children, disabled war veterans, crippled adults and elderly persons unable to support themselves are looking anxiously to Santa Claus for expressions of Christmas cheer from the bulging basket of 1947 prosperity.

For nearly a score of years Good Fellows of the Indianapolis Recorder Charities have been bringing sunshine to the hearts of this community's unfortunate with gifts of toys, food, clothing and other necessities bearing the Christmas label, "Peace on Earth, Goodwill to All Men."

In announcing opening of this year's fund-raising campaign, officials of the Recorder Charities urge Good Fellows of past years and those willing to practice Christian charity at this time to start organization of their volunteer groups.

Last year over $100 was raised through the work of individuals who volunteered to contact and solicit other persons with whom they were working or closely associated. The response was almost universal with contributions being made in a magnificent spirit by factory and store workers, labor unions, churches, schools, lodges, clubs, political organizations and numerous other groups.

Hundreds were made happy on the most important holiday of the year. Both those who gave and those who received.

Owing to the uncontrollable inequities that arise under modern living conditions, there is still want, need and human suffering for which no one in particular is responsible.

The Good Fellows face this situation realistically and are willing to do more things than offer mere sympathy. They give—money, food, clothing or other things that can be useful while making the receivers happy in the knowledge that their more fortunate neighbors are willing to share their means in the spirit of Christ whose anniversary all will celebrate on Christmas Day.

The patron saint and Archangel of Christ, the Prince of Peace and Giver of every good and perfect gift, is Santa Claus. Good Fellows know that Santa Claus is not some mythical character from the story books. They know that Santa is real—the throbbing, thrilling joy of unselfish giving, and helping make others happy who for no reason of their own, lack the means of providing their own happiness.

Everyone who enjoys a comfortable degree of well being in terms of health, resources, finances and

Social Action Group Holds Discussion On Cost of Living

The Indianapolis Forum for Social Action held a panel discussion on "The High Cost of Living" at the Central YWCA on Tuesday evening.

Speakers included Henry M. Graham, of the Indianapolis Family Service Association; Harry White, state director of the Progressive Citizens of America; John Bennett, co-chairman of the United Labor Committee; and Margaret Blenkner, Indiana University School of Social Work.

Willard B. Ransom, NAACP state chairman, served as moderator.

The forum, which was formerly the Indiana Committee to Win the Peace, has launched a membership drive. Dr. Theodore Cable and Dr. James A. Crain are co-chairmen.

A nine-point statement of objectives includes action "to achieve and maintain the constitutional rights of every individual regardless of race, nationality, color or creed; (to end) all discrimination against the Negro people and all other minority groups."

Other objectives are to improve economic and social conditions, support organized labor, defend civil liberties and work for world peace.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED: Mrs. Ethelyne M. Bass, Lafayette, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Marjorie Anne, to Otis W. Keyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Cosby. The wedding date is set for Dec. 28.

The bride, a 1946 graduate of the Homer G. Phillips nurses school in St. Louis, is practicing at the Flower Mission hospital.

STATE WIDE TRIBUTE PAID FRISBIE, MCEWAN

"When a trade union leader fights for the rights of the Negro, he is not doing anybody a favor—he is fighting for his own rights," declared Walter Frisbie, former CIO state secretary, at a testimonial dinner held at Flanner House last Saturday.

About 130 labor and community leaders attended the interracial gathering, which paid tribute to Frisbie and James McEwan, former chairman of the Indiana CIO.

Both Frisbie and McEwan were defeated at the last state convention of the CIO. Frisbie is now on the staff of the United Electrical Workers, CIO, while McEwan, an auto worker, has returned to his shop in South Bend.

Willard B. Ransom, NAACP state president, and Robert Kirkwood of UE-CIO were co-chairmen of the banquet. They presented the honored guests with gifts in token of the community's esteem.

"I cannot say how deeply I am moved by this gathering," said Frisbie, and added: "But like Joe Hill, I ain't dead."

The militant labor leader then discussed the rising intolerance against Negroes and other groups throughout the nation, observing: "Discrimination is not an accident—it is a weapon in the fight between the interests and the people."

Lashes Press, Radio

Turning to the present situation in Indianapolis, Frisbie lashed out at newspaper publishers and radio commentators whom he charged with inciting hysteria. He advanced the opinion that the "wave of hysteria" was designed to offset recent advances in the battle against segregation.

Rivalries between newspapers for circulation and political control also played a part in the community serving as a political football, Frisbie declared.

Rev. Marshall A. Talley pronounced the benediction. Miss Dorothy Crossland of Peru rendered musical selections.

Speakers who paid brief tributes to Frisbie and McEwan included Rev. Talley, Mrs. Lizzie Mae Winsell, Powers Hapwood, Mrs. Edna Johnson, Hadley Flint, Starling W. James, Wilson Head, F. E. DeFrantz, Rev. Walter W. Hill.

Also Milton Cruze, Morten Good, Emil Dean, Wm. A. Chambers, Joseph Romer, Harold Wilson, Dr. Theodore Cable, Carl J. Jacobs, Andrew W. Ramsey, John W. Williams, editor of the Milwaukee Globe, Charles S. Preston, H. J. McNamara, James Bayless, Mrs. Jessie Jacobs and Mrs. Powers Hapwood.

Miss Audrey Howard and Miss Rose Hudec were in charge of arrangements for the banquet.

'Wonder Bread' Faces Buyers Strike by Citizens of Gary

GARY — The buyers' strike against Wonder Bread will continue, it was declared here last week by "Doc" James, president of the Ol' Timers Club.

The boycott was occasioned by the alleged refusal of the Continental Baking Company to hire Negro drivers. Leaders of the job struggle said that representatives of the company and the AFL Teamsters Union had failed to give them a satisfactory reply.

Roscoe Conklin Simmons, noted Chicago orator, addressed a mass meeting at Roosevelt School in support of the boycott movement. He said that the Negro will never be a free and equal citizen of America until he obtains economic freedom.

The interdenominational Ministerial Alliance swung its support behind the fast-spreading movement, according to Rev. L. K. Jackson, the president.

A group of white central district merchants, owners of the largest independent stores in the area, voted to discontinue the use of Con-

WATTS FACES EARLY TRIAL IN BURNEY SLAYING

Robert Austin Watts, whose reported confession on last week to slaying two women was followed by the most ominous public reaction in recent history, will be tried December 8, in Criminal Court, Division 2, Judge Saul I. Rabb announced following his arraignment last Saturday.

Although another important trial—the kidnap-rape case—was scheduled to get under way next Monday, Judge Rabb said he expected it to be disposed of before the week-end, permitting the case to be heard without further delay.

Watts appeared highly nervous at his arraignment when he pleaded not guilty to a first-degree murder charge of having fatally wounded Mrs. Mary Lois Burney in her Northside home during an attempted attack. He was indicted by a hastily summoned grand jury shortly after his confession last week. Sheriff Albert C. Magenhimer and state police officials said Watts later confessed a part in the knife-killing of Mrs. Mabel Merrifield.

Watts will be represented by Robert Rutherford and Henry Cery, attorneys appointed by the court to represent him after he took a pauper's oath.

Meanwhile the wave of excitement that followed disclosures of Watts' arrest and confession appears to have subsided, the city returning to its normal attitude that the law should take its course without pressure and the case be weighed in the scales of justice without prejudice.

WILL SUBPOENA POLICE RECORD OF KIDNAP-GIRL

Records of the arrests of the 19-year-old Southside girl who charged she was kidnapped and raped by six men several weeks ago, are mysteriously missing from police files Thurl Rhodes, defense attorney declared Wednesday. Unless they are returned for inspection before start of the trial set for next Monday, they will be subpoenaed, he said.

Evidence which will help determine the character of the witness should be presented to the jury in its attempt to render justice through a fair trial, Mr. Rhodes said.

He is checking a report that the young prosecuting witness has a police record of three arrests, the last one occurring last week on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, the defense counsel asserted. He cannot find the records presently in police files, although there is evidence the arrests were made.

Judge Saul I. Rabb who will preside at the trial in Criminal Court, Division 2, set Friday, 11 a. m., as the time for a hearing on a plea of insanity by Stewart Drickson, 21, 610 W. 27th st., one of the defendants. If found sane, he will be tried along with the other defendants.

They are: Thomas Lee Gardner, 23, Robert Warner, 29, James Henderson, 25, who was adjudged sane by examining physicians, Robert Johnson, 22 and Donald Peck, 21. Assisting Mr. Rhodes in the defense are, Frank X. Haupt and Henry Perry.

Continental Bakery products until the dispute has been resolved.

James was aided in the negotiations by Joseph Chapman, executive secretary of the Urban League and Malcolm Hayes, treasurer of the Ol' Timers Club.

GARY MEDIC NAMED TO MERCY HOSPITAL STAFF

GARY — Dr. Martin H. Lovell last week received official notification of his appointment as the second Negro physician on the staff of Mercy Hospital.

Dr. Lovell, who has practiced medicine here for seven years, was previously on the staff of Melhary Medical College. He came here from Cincinnati. His wife, Mrs. Martha Lovell, is a teacher at Roosevelt School.

NURSES ORGANIZED AT EVANSVILLE

EVANSVILLE—Negro registered nurses in the Tri-State area formed the Mabel K. Staupers Club here last week.

Officers elected were Miss Al Louise S. Jaxon of Evansville, president; Mrs. Lucile Durham Henderson, Ky., vice-president; Mrs. Ophelia Bradshaw Henderson, Ind., secretary; Mrs. Janie K. Cole Henderson, parliamentarian, and Miss Wilhelmina McKinney, Evansville, publicity chairman.

LIFE'S WORK OF SCIENTIST DESTROYED

TUSKEGEE, Ala.—Fire of an undetermined origin which originated in the ground floor laboratory of the George Washington Carver Museum and spread rapidly to the second floor last Sunday morning, practically destroyed the life's work of the distinguished scientist which occupied the main floor and Dr. Carver's priceless paintings and exhibits of his handiwork.

The modern equipped laboratory housed the extensive research and experiments conducted by six graduate students of the 15 enrolled in chemistry in the Carver Research Laboratory under the direction of Dr. Russell W. Brown and Dr. Clarence T. Mason, director and associate director of the Carver Foundation. The equipment in the laboratory was a total loss, with probably serious damage to the records.

The fire was discovered about 4:30 Sunday morning, which, probably, accounts for the fact that no personal belongings were sustained by members of the staff. The fire-fighting equipment from the town of Tuskegee and the Veterans Hospital responded and rendered valuable assistance to the Institute's fire department, bringing the fire under control after three hours of heroic and difficult work.

President F. D. Patterson, who was on the campus at the time, described the fire as a tragic loss to Tuskegee Institute and to humanity. He further stated that every effort will be made to salvage and restore the few remaining items representing the personal creative work of Dr. Carver.

The Carver Museum was first housed in the Agricultural Building in 1898 and was transferred to its present location six years ago. The present museum was dedicated by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford, March 11, 1941.

Exhibits in the Carver Museum included ceramic products, paints, stains, and varnishes made from the Alabama clay; artificial marble made from wood shavings and sawdust; a replica of the first laboratory used by him and articles used in the first laboratory experiment station; beautiful wall hangings, table runners and the like made from feed sacks and strings; rugs and mats, rags, okra and other fibers; varieties of dyes made from native plants, paving blocks from cotton; a variety of products made from the peanut and the sweet potato.

Local NAACP to Elect Officers Monday, Dec. 1

Annual election of officers of the local branch NAACP will be held at a membership meeting at the Senate Ave. YMCA next Monday evening, Dec. 1.

Charles K. Harris is chairman of the nominating committee. Other members of the committee, elected at a meeting Tuesday night, include Charles S. Preston, Richard Miller, Wilson Head, Mrs. Imogene Johnson, Mrs. Hazel Parks and Robert Starnes.

In addition to the committee's recommendations, other nominations may be made from the floor. They must be made in writing and signed by three members.

Flonoi Adams, president during the past year, delivered his annual report at Tuesday night's meeting.

Mrs. Jessie Jacobs delivered the report of the educational committee. She described the formation of neighborhood NAACP groups throughout the city to carry on the crusade against segregated schools.

TRINITY LODGE MASONS GIVE THANKS AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Reverent, deep and soulful thanks to the Supreme Architect of the universe for his manifold bounties were expressed by members of the Trinity Lodge, No. 18, F. and A. M. at their fifth annual Thanksgiving banquet at the YMCA last Friday night.

More than 450 persons including members, their families and special guests were served the conventional turkey in the appropriately decorated "Y" gym.

Principal speaker was Rev. David C. Venerable with William Martin serving as master of ceremonies. Others participating on the program included: Rev. C. H. Whitely, Miss Ethel Trice, J. Glazebrooks, Mrs. Elsie Garrett, Ralph Williams, Rev. F. S. Ector and Ernest R. Jones, worshipful master of Trinity lodge. Special guest was Cornelius Richardson, state grand master of the Masonic order.

Trinity Lodge of the Masonic Order which is one of the most reputable and potent influences for the uplifting of humanity through loyalty to the highest ideals of morality and Christianity, was founded in 1877 and has enjoyed unbroken continuance of existence through the maze of panics, depressions and public apathy during its seventy years of activity.

The fact it has weathered every storm successfully is pointed to as proof of its inherent soundness and imperishable quality. With a present membership of more than five hundred, it sets an example in civic, educational and cultural matters in this community.

The lodge has adopted an extensive program of community advancement which it furthers through various active committees in addition to regular functional groups of the secret order.

Its Educational committee of which Robert W. Starns is chairman encourages and gives financial aid to sons and daughters of Masons and other students who, it is deemed, are worthy of aid in preparing for a useful life. Members of the lodge feel it a Christian obligation to encourage youth, not only by wise counsel, but in concrete terms. For this reason it has established a scholarship fund from which it awards annually scholarships to selected youths.

The important public relations committee headed by Paul Carter aims at the cementing of amicable relationships with other worthy community groups aiming at civic betterment and common understanding in the fight for a common justice for all.

Present economic conditions do not demand much activity by Trinity's employment committee headed by Paul Carter, but it remains prepared to spring into efficient action in case of an emergency requiring job placements for members.

The financial soundness of the lodge is indicated in Friday night's ceremonies in which a $1,000 U. S. bond was turned over to David A. Barnes, the lodge treasurer for deposit in the bank vault. This is the second $1,000 bond purchased by the lodge this year.

Ernest Jones, the worshipful master, is the oldest Mason in Trinity lodge in years of service and before being elected to his present office in 1942, had served in that office in 1913. He holds a 33-degree and membership in all branches of Masonry. He also serves in the community as deacon in his church.

Other officers of Trinity lodge are: Miles Lloyd, senior warden; Edward McWilliams, secretary; Elora Reeves, assistant secretary and Rev. Ector, chaplain.

TUSKEGEE 'POLIO' PATIENTS ENTERTAINED AT TALLADEGA COLLEGE: Members of the Alpha Beta chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity of Talladega college presented an entertaining and novel program for the patients of the Tuskegee Polio center during the homecoming activities at Tuskegee recently.

The fraternity members led by Arthur Fox, a recent patient in the center and now resuming his studies at Talladega, presented a variety of games, songs, and novel skits that evoked the keenest interest and enthusiasm of all of the patients. Contests and prizes and gifts for all of the patients provided an unusual hour and a half of pleasure that was enjoyed as much by the nurses and attendants as by the patients.

to take them home, told them if they ever disobeyed him again he would have them arrested and sent back to Angola.

After that, the two were taken to Mount Kisco, where their treatment became even worse, and where they were not allowed to leave the grounds without a paper which Mr. Wells told them was their "pass." Chicuta later signed papers whose nature he says he did not know, but which turned out to be an application for an extension of his visa which was a matter of fact extended to May, 1948.

Chicuta, who says he only stayed in Mr. Wells' employ because of continuous threats, finally left him in spite of them. At that time, a month ago, Mr. Wells turned over all Chicuta's documents, including his alien registration card, to immigration service.

Mrs. Ollie Weeks gave the report of the membership committee.

CHRISTMAS SEAL COMMITTEE MEMBERS NAMED BY PRESIDENT

Appointment of Russell A. Lane principal of Crispus Attucks high school, as a member of the volunteer Christmas Seal Committee of the Marion County Tuberculosis Association, is announced by George E. Middleton, president.

Heading the committee as chairman is Eli Lilly, civic and business leader.

Residents of Marion County are receiving their Christmas Seal through the mail this week. The campaign continues through December 24.

Goal of the Seal Sale is $100,000, the same amount as was raised a year ago and citizens are being urged to purchase as many Seals as possible in order to assist in the health-building and life-saving program of the Marion County Tuberculosis Association.

It is reported that there are at least 2,000 active cases of tuberculosis in Marion County and an average of one new case is reported each 16 hours. There were 525 new cases in 1946. It also is reported that 220 residents of Marion County died of tuberculosis.

No family affair is complete without a good group photograph. It's never easy to get all the family together, and such occasions should be perpetuated

We don't mean the old style... front-row-kneeling-second-row-sitting-third-row-standing type of group. That went out years ago. Our groups are truly artistic pictures that you'll be proud to frame and hang.

When you plan your get-together, drop in and let us show our samples. We're proud of them!

Thanksgiving Made Pleasant for Needy By Eastside Church

The Missionary Society and the Deaconess board of Greater St. John Baptist church sponsored two donations each of five dollars to provide a Thanksgiving dinner for two of the city's most needy families this week. The money was left with the Indianapolis Recorder and the Recorder Charities corporation was entrusted with the responsibility of selecting two families to receive the gifts.

The church auxiliaries also made donations of canned goods to the Alpha Home for the Aged and gifts of poultry for Thanksgiving dinner to two underprivileged families of the East side community.

Mrs. Catherine Jackson is president of the Missionary Society and Mrs. Molly L. Bridges is president of the Deaconess board. The Greater St. John Baptist church is located at 17th street and Maryland avenue. Rev. Andrew J. Brown the pastor was recently installed.

NEW CLUB SAVOY GIVES TOUCH OF CLASS TO THRIVING EAST SIDE

The Eastside became one of the important centers of entertainment with the gala opening of the swanky Club Savoy at 25th and Martindale avenue November 14. Ever since, fun-loving crowds have jam-packed the beautifully appointed Club Savoy.

The grand opening was made memorable through an artistic arrangement of furnishings embellished with garlands of beautiful flowers. Sweet music was provided by a popular orchestra.

To persons familiar with the neighborhood, the new spot added a welcome note of class and distinction to the popular Eastside section. Insistence by many people who could not get in opening night caused the club managers to extend festivities through a whole week. The spot has definitely established itself as "the place" for the important Eastside community.

The club is spacious and can accommodate clubs, private parties and other groups seeking places of distinction for their gathering. Food is prepared by expert cooks and served by attractive waitresses. Sylvester Braxton, expert mixologist, services the modernistic bar.

Samuel Lawrence and Ruby Goldstein, proprietors who planned and executed the vast and complete remodeling of their former tavern expressed since thanks to their patrons for the enthusiastic manner in which their efforts to improve conditions on the Eastside have been acclaimed. One of the noticeable features that has marked the spot since its opening is the orderliness and good behavior will insist on keeping Club Savoy a place for persons who adhere to the standards of proper dress and good manners.

ICE MAN RECEIVES
BIRTHDAY GIFT FROM LILLY VARNISH CO.

J. A. Gayhart, 910 Meikle street, independent operator of an ice sales route observed his birthday on Nov. 14 and the Lilly Varnish Manufacturing Company which he has served with ice twenty-one years presented him with a check for twenty-one dollars.

The check was enclosed in a letter signed by W. J. Longworth, president of the Lilly Varnish Manufacturing Company. In the letter Mr. Longworth acknowledged the reliable and appreciable service Mr. Gayhart had given to the firm, and current or past friendly relations.

He also wished Mr. Gayhart health, happiness and a long prosperous future. Mr. Gayhart observed that the friendly relations expressed in the letter if multiplied a thousand times in the community and a thousand fold in the country might solve many problems affording distress or trouble for people of our land.

FIRST HIGH JUDGE NAMED IN PENNA.

PHILADELPHIA (ANP)—Herbert E. Millen, well known attorney and veteran Republican, was named a municipal judge by Gov. James H. Duff recently to become the first member of the major judiciary in Pennsylvania. The appointment was announced Wednesday night before 10,000 cheering people at the Tribune Cavalcade of music at Convention hall.

Millen was for four years assistant director of public safety, and is presently serving as a non-said member of the city's rent commission which was authorized after OPA rent control was modified.

Born in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, the attorney worked his way through the University of Pennsylvania Law school, following his graduation from Lincoln university by working at night in the Philadelphia Post office. Entering politics, he has guided two local and an equal number of state campaigns for Republicans, and was appointed to the safety post by the late Mayor Lamberton in recognition for what the then-mayor referred to as "sterling and distinguished service."

Returning to his private law practice after four years of public service, he was elected president and general counsel of the Provident Home Life Insurance Co. In addition, Millen has been active in the annual drives of the Community fund and the Negro College fund campaigns.

Earlier in his career Millen also served as a special assistant attorney general of the Commonwealth, having been named to that post in 1934.

Millen will serve until 1954, filling the unexpired term of President Judge Charles L. Brown, who recently died. In 1954, he must stand for election, but in Philadelphia the "sitting judge" theory is followed, which means that both parties usually back judges already on the bench and there is no partisan contest at election time. The regular municipal term runs for 10 years. The salary is $10,000 per year.

Before Millen was appointed there were three Negroes holding federal judgeships, and nine other judges in New York City (six), and Cleveland, Chicago and Los Angeles (one each). These judges are:

FEDERAL

Irving C. Mollison, U.S. Customs court, New York City; Herman E. More, of Chicago, U. S. District court, Virgin Islands; and Armond W. Scott, municipal court of the District of Columbia.

STATE

New York City: Charles E. Toney and James S. Watson, municipal court; Jane M. Bolin and Hubert T. Delany, domestic relations court; Myles A. Paige, special sessions court; and Francis E. Rivers, city court.

Cleveland: Artee Fleming, common pleas court; Chicago: Wendell E. Green, municipal court, and Los Angeles: Edwin L. Jefferson, municipal court.

Judges Watson and Toney, of the New York Municipal court, were first elected in 1931 and have been re-elected twice for 10-year terms.

SOLON URGES GOLDEN RULE FOREIGN POLICY

By ALMITA S. ROBINSON

FT. WORTH, Tex. (ANP)—Before an audience of Negro and white citizens at the Will Rogers auditorium recently, Sen. Glen Taylor of Idaho fervently pleaded for a US foreign policy that is based on the Golden Rule. He declared that if Russia had done some of the things which the United States is guilty of doing, "we would have been in a third world war long ago."

Leaflets calling Sen. Taylor a Communist were distributed in front of the auditorium by members of Gateway Baptist church the Rev. Bill Arms, pastor. Sen. Taylor said he would have expected such from the Chamber of Commerce the National Association of Manufacturers, or even the American Legion but not from the church of God. "I thought the church would be trying to promote peace and goodwill."

He said he does not like the bipartisan foreign policy. "I don't like the idea of a one party state. There should be at least two parties to serve as checks and balances against each other. I would not like a bipartisan foreign policy even if it was good," he declared, that a bipartisan foreign policy "is dangerous."

Sen. Taylor said the generals and admirals of the U. S. are opposed to disarmament because such would convince congress that we need a big army. To do this there had to be a bogey-man and the only available bogey-man was Russia, so overnight "the heroes of Stalingrad became vicious monsters of the Kremlin." Then an intense propaganda drive on the viciousness of Russia was put on and everyone who is against the U. S. foreign policy is a Red. The "freedom of the press has become the freedom to exterminate mankind."

he declared.
The senator called the Hollywood investigations a "ridiculous exhibition."

LADY LOOK AT YOUR HAIR

MR. BROOKS AT LOCKEFIELD Beauty Salon says "Lady, look at your hair." Your crowning glory deserves conscientious care. If the ends of your hair are split, dry and broken, have your hair trimmed the natural oils within each hair so they cannot run out at the ends. Certain types of hair "bleeds", which means that the oils run out of the broken ends, leaving a dead hair which falls out.

To stimulate scalp, we use scientific methods, the Thermo-Hood and violet ray, given by eight trained operators, also individual hair styling and powder blending.

CONCERT PIANIST TO APPEAR HERE

Clara E. Adams, noted Cleveland concert pianist, will be presented in a recital at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA Friday night, December 5, at 8:30, sponsored by the Women's club of Penick Chapel AME Zion church.

Making her debut to the music world by playing one of Beethoven's most difficult sonatas at the age of nine, Mrs. Adams has given a number of recitals and concerts, and has given a series of solo radio broadcasts.

She began her musical education at the Murray Adams music studio, and later studied under Madam Viola Benton and the Cleveland Institute of Music. She is a teacher of piano, theory, harmony, and composition in Cleveland public schools and privately.

She will feature a group of her own compositions at the recital here. Mrs. Edith Patton is president of the Women's club, and Rev. B. H. Bernard is pastor of the church.

EVANS. Mrs. Taylor had as her guests the Misses MARY ANN LIGGINS and FRANCES WALTON. . . Plans for the Christmas meeting with Mrs. Shelton were announced. . . The Saturday Eight met with Mrs. JOEL OVERSTREET Saturday evening. . . An exhibit of canned goods was featured. . . STARLING W. JAMES entertained the Wyleway bridge club last week. . . Prizes were won by DAVE CLARK, ERNEST KIRK, and MOSES ADAMS. . . Thanksgiving always occasions much coming and going among families and friends. . . Dr. and Mrs. FREDERICK H. EVANS JR. and little FREDERICK H. III are spending Thanksgiving Day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. FREDERICK H. EVANS SR., in Terre Haute. . .

HARRY TAYLOR returned to the city Wednesday for Thanksgiving, and will stay until Sunday, when he will return to Tennessee A. and M. state college in Nashville. . .

Mrs. I. A. HENDERSON is entertaining as Thanksgiving guests her son, JOHN HENDERSON, and Miss LOTTIE GORDON, Knoxville, Tenn., and her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. THOMAS PERRY, and children, Tuskegee. . .

Mr. and Mrs. FRED H. AUGUSTA will spend Thanksgiving Day in Anderson with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR MINNFIELD. . . Mrs. Augusta, by the way, spent the week-end in Dayton with relatives. . . Mrs. MURRAY ATKINS WALLS of Louisville, spent the early part of the week with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. CECIL R. POWELL. . .

Mrs. ROSE H. THOMPSON is spending the week-end in Chicago with her sister, Mrs. ROSCOE RICE. . .

Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT LANDRUM, Chicago, returned to the city this week after a ten-day visit in New York City, and will remain here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. LEWIS, until after the Thanksgiving holidays. . .

While away, their little daughter, CAROLIE PATRICIA, who will celebrate her first birthday Dec. 7, remained with Dr. and Mrs. Lewis. . .

Mr. and Mrs. SANFORD RAMSEY, Mrs. CARY D. JACOBS and son, JOHN, and JOSEPH RAMSEY motored to South Bend last Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. MELVIN BAIRD, who are proud parents of a girl born this month. . .

BACKACHE?

Do you know the proved way to relieve the stabbing, nagging pains of muscular backache?

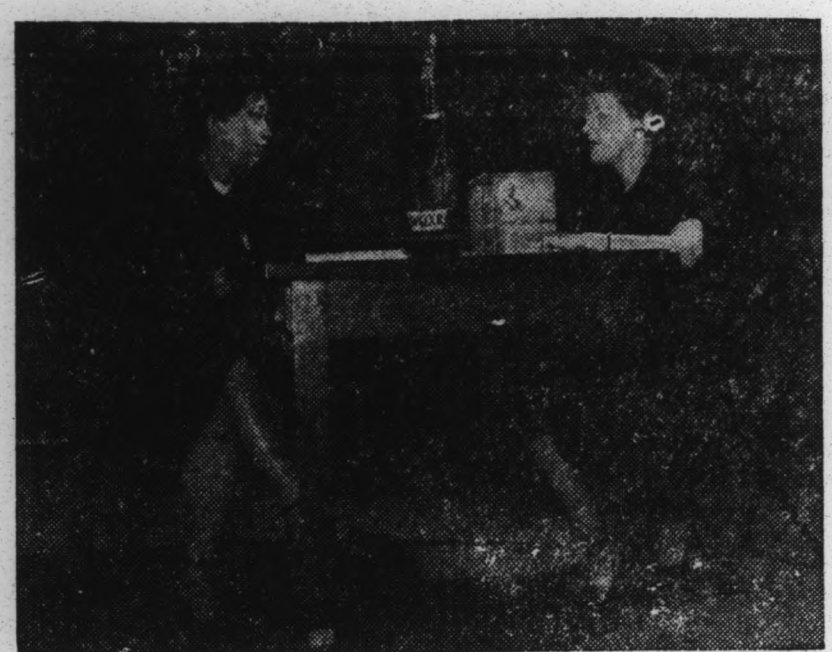

Doctors have made tests with hundreds of people. Found that nearly 9 out of 10 gained relief with Johnson's BACK PLASTER—the one product made specifically for relieving ordinary backache.

How it helps you: This adhesive plaster contains a mild medication that stimulates circulation. It brings the healing and warming blood to the sore spot. Tense muscles relax. Pain eases. The warming pad guards against chilling, supports twitching muscles, cuts down pain.

Made by Johnson & Johnson—known for fine surgical dressings for 60 years. Johnson's BACK PLASTER—at all drug stores.

Hi-Y-Teen Council To Sponsor Tea

The Hi-Y-Teen Council will sponsor a tea Sunday, Dec. 7, at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA from 3 to 5. The adult public, as well as teen-agers, is invited. . . Hardin-Johnson Vows Said In Double-Ring Ceremony

A double-ring ceremony Sunday afternoon, Nov. 16 joined in Holy matrimony Miss Pauline E. Hardin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Hardin, Jeffersonville, and Norman C. Johnson, son of Mrs. William Jenkins, in the home of the groom's parents, 2253 Carrollton avenue. . .

Rev. J. S. A. Mitcham officiated at the wedding in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends. Recorded music was played before, during, and after the ceremony. . .

The bride, given in marriage by James W. Minor, wore a simple dress of white wool with full skirt and high, round neckline, and cape sleeves. Her necklace and earrings were of gold, and she wore an orchid corsage. . .

Miss Mary Josephine Hardin, Jeffersonville, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Maurice L. Johnson, brother of the groom, was best man. . .

The reception followed immediately. A three-tiered white cake, topped with miniature bride and groom, and further garnished with wedding bells and blossoms, centered the table. Punch and ice cream were also served. . .

Among out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Leggett, Miss Leona Anderson, and W. E. Waller, Terre Haute; Emmett Hardiman, Princeton; and Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Jones and Dr. Jerry H. Henderson Jr., Brazil. . .

Northside Girls Preparing Christmas Charity Work

Living up to their name by keeping constantly busy, the Active Northside Girls are busy reconditioning toys for Christmas distribution at Flanner House. The club, organized April 7 of this year, has as its purpose wholesome activities for girls of the neighborhood. . .

Since there are no recreation centers for children on the far north side of town, a group of the girls got together with Mrs. Albert Ferguson Jr., advisor and Mrs. Harry Harper sponsor, and organized themselves into the Active Northside Girls club to help remedy the situation. . .

The club maintains a regular club room in the basement of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ferguson Jr. . . The girls enjoyed Halloween recently with a colorful costume party on Halloween night. Games were played, and prizes awarded. . . For Thanksgiving activities the girls are taking oranges to children on the children's ward at the General hospital. . .

Members of the club range in age from 9 to 14. They have a sick committee which sends cards to sick residents in the community and sends cards to families of deceased residents. . .

Emphasizing wholesome home relationships, the girls had a Mother-Daughter banquet recently also. . . Officers on the club are Miriam Lawson, president; Betty Bateman vice-president; Rosalyn Horner, secretary; Janet Simpson, treasurer; and Harriett Blackburn, reporter. Other members are Patricia Horner, Mildred Jean Ward, Sheila Shelton, Mary Ann Winston, Harriet Wilson, Thelma Kent, Marilyn Harper, Joyce Woods, and Joann Harper. . .

Legion Auxiliary Women Purchase Christmas Gifts

Mrs. Alberta Armstrong, Knightstown Home chairman of the Edward S. Gaillard Unit 107 of the American Legion auxiliary, went shopping with Mrs. Mae Owsley, past Knightstown Home chairman, this week. They purchased Christmas gifts for Division Eleven, which the unit sponsors at the Knightstown home.

Among the list of requested articles are toilet articles, belts, socks, inexpensive costume jewelry, including earrings, mittens, hair ribbons, lingerie, pencils, crayons, stationery, scarfs, rain capes, berets, coloring books, skirt hangers, waste baskets, and a radio for the house.

Among other activities which the unit conducts during the year for the children at the Knightstown Home are Easter remembrances, Mothers Day cards for the children to send, birthday cards on children's birthdays, and a winner roast on the grounds.

The Saturday night ward activities sponsored by Mrs. Mae Owsley, rehabilitation chairman, with

Rehearsals Scheduled For Recorder's 'Children's Hour'

Regular rehearsals for the first annual "Children's Hour", sponsored by the Indianapolis Recorder Good Fellows Cheer Fund at the Walker Casino Sunday afternoon, Dec. 14, at 4, began last Saturday in the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, Mrs. Corean R. Hawkins, general director of the program, announced this week.

Another rehearsal will be held this Saturday morning from 10 to 12 in the YWCA, Mrs. Hawkins further stated. All children wishing to take part in the mammoth "Children's Hour" are invited to be present to be assigned roles.

Many individuals and groups are combining their talents and time to make this children's affair an overwhelming success. The "Children's Hour" will be in the form of a children's variety show, composed of, by, and for children.

Churches and other civic organizations have already pledged their services in assisting the large committees of women to assure an auspicious opening of the activities for this year's Christmas Cheer Fund.

As the public knows, the Indianapolis Recorder's Good Fellows Cheer Fund is a benevolent organization whose sole purpose is to raise funds to insure a happy Christmas for many needy residents of the city who otherwise would not enjoy this season of

Youthful Soprano Gives Debut Recital In YWCA

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

An affair which should have caused considerably more of a stir in our fair city than it did was the presentation Friday night of Miss Jeannine Brent, Bloomington (Ill.) coloratura soprano, in recital by the music committee of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA.

The recital should have caused more of a stir for two reasons. First, and most important, Miss Brent has a very pretty voice which was well worth hearing. And second, it gave our people who are always raving about "giving young people a chance" an opportunity to do more than lip-service to this benevolent idea.

The affair also gives opportunity to taroew orchids and onions, at the same time — orchids to the music committee of the YWCA for doing something really constructive in presenting the young soloist, and onions to outstanding affairs on the same evening, causing both to suffer.

Miss Brent, a senior at Bloomington high school, is an artist in the making. As already stated, she has a pretty voice with loads of possibilities. It would be ridiculous to say she is an artist. She isn't.

But she possesses most of the potentialities of an artist. Her voice is extremely flexible, her high notes are remarkably clear, and her phrasing, while in need of improvement, shows training in the right direction.

She sang a conventional program, beginning with J. S. Bach, and making the rounds through an Italian group, several English numbers, and spirituals.

This reviewer is indeed sorry he could not hear all of the recital, as there was a noticeable warming up during the beginning of the affair, which would imply that it ended perhaps auspiciously.

The perfunctory, tinkling manner in which the Mozart "Allielu" was sung had given way to an ingratiating warmth by the time she got to "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child".

The music committee of the YWCA, which, if I may say so, has always been treated like a stepchild around the "Y", can be proud of itself. Working against discouraging odds, the committee managed to present an evening of

Dr. Percy Julian Honored at Banquet At Senate Ave. Y

Dr. Percy Julian, internationally known scientist and research director of the Glidden Company, Chicago, speaking at the Senate Avenue YMCA, Sunday, Nov. 23, deplored the diabolical machination of science today.

His subject was "Modern Science and Our American Faith." Particularly referring to the atomic bomb he observed that it was a crime against humanity. Dr. Julian also condemned science and scientists for murderous practices in German war prisons.

He asserted that science was not destined to serve as an instrument of mass murder but to serve and have mankind to better enjoy his existence. He pointed out that our American faith is grossly perverted by our materialistic Twentieth century philosophy which weakens our potentialities in world leadership.

Dr. Julian launched our vigorously against intolerance and the growing menace of anti-Semitism in America. He denounced the "phobias" in regards to Negro people in contradiction to scientific fact and our professed American faith.

The noted scientist was the speaker for an interracial group in an "appreciation banquet" held in his honor on Monday evening, Nov. 24. Dr. Francis D. Hummels was chairman of the committee which promoted the banquet.

Persons appearing on the program included Dean Louis H. Dirks of DePauw, the alma mater of Dr. Julian, Parker P. Jordan, national president of the DePauw Alumni Ass'n; F. E. DePauw, executive secretary of the Senate Avenue YMCA; L. Albridge, local attorney; C. K. Shuman, Glidden Company; Paul Myers, Technical high school; Dr. E. C. Kieffer, Eli Lilly Co. and Clifford Wilson, Eli Lilly Co.

Youth Day Program Colorful Success

Sunday November 17th, was acclaimed "Youth Day" at the Gallatin Baptist Church, in the most colorful, outstanding and inspirational series of "Youth For Christ." Services were witnessed in East Indianapolis.

Highlights of the program were: The dynamic message delivered by the pastor Rev. D. Dudley whose appeal was "Christ Has Need Of A Young Life," followed in the afternoon sessions by the inspirational Topic, "Youth Crusade" presented so poignantly by Mrs. Clara Dudley, wife of the eminent pastor and organizer, after which the youths were served a delicious repast in the church basement.

Climaxing this eventful occasion was Miss Anna Katherine Fletcher an aspiring young artist of the church and community with an elaborate demonstration built around the youth.

Segregation Ban Prompts Growth Of Catholic Converts

Chicago: "More Negroes belong to the Catholic Church than to any other Christian religious body in the world." A December Negro Digest article asserts in announcing that in the world at large more than 20 million colored people are Catholics.

"Here in the U.S." the Negro Digest story asserts, "there is no South Catholic Church (to distinguish it from the North) and no Negro Catholic Church (to distinguish it from white)."

"Once a Negro becomes a Catholic with instructions and baptism, he is fully and completely a Catholic with all the benefits and rights disregarding race or color. And he is entitled to and receives—full participation in Catholic life or worship and education elsewhere."

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

Before I pass this week's accumulation of knowledge on to you faithful readers, I wish to direct an apology to Mr. Richard Lee Collins. To Mr. Collins we received your letter this morning, and we do thank you for your frank opinion. But I might add that we are not directly to blame for the article about you in last week's column. We try to stick to the society of teenagers, but inasmuch as we print letters, we don't always know who are and who aren't teenagers. If we don't know you personally, we still have to assume full responsibility for whatever is printed. If anyone is ever affected by remarks made in this column, just drop us a line and if we find that you are not in your teens or if we are wrong in any respect regarding the incident concerning you we will not hesitate to apologize openly.

And so, we thank you, Mr. Collins, and we do hope you got everything straight by now, and we further hope you continue to lead a happy home life. That leads me to say that whenever you kids write us a letter please sign your own name and address. We won't reveal your name unless a situation arises making it necessary. We appreciate your interest in the column, but if you must write fictitious things about people and then sign somebody else's name to it, we would much rather you didn't write at all. By the way, if a letter is unsigned, you may as well not mail it, as it won't go in any way.

But that's enough for that. I know you're anxious to know what's been going on and with whom, so here goes. Wednesday afternoon I picked up the Teenagers again, and I must say that everyone appeared to be getting their kicks most madly. Were you there? No? Well, you must come up some Wednesday afternoon and see what it's like to enjoy yourself to the utmost.

By the way, Betty Fields was lucky enough to win herself a ticket to the Santa Helena ice creamery for Thanksgiving night. Fifteen other people were lucky, too, winning passes to the Walker show, the Walker Casino, and Shookum Russell's dance. Charles Williams won the $250 cash prize. Everyone was jumping at a bebop tempo. Charles Robinson and his partner, Anna Carpenter took the floor several times when Herbie Easley and Thelma Johnson failed to do so. I'm sure that everyone agrees that bebop music as well as offtime dancing is taking over. At least everyone is trying to pull some smooth offtime steps. From the eastside reporter we hear that Dorothy Polk has been seen with "Cookie" a lot lately, but they didn't say who "Cookie" was. I wonder. They also mentioned something about a Mr. "C." Now who can that be? Barbara Shelby is now out of the hospital. Well, good for her. Dickie Ldsell and Dorothy Dyeus sure look great together. Their affair seems to be on the fine side. Harold Edmonds sure is a gentlemanly kid. He gives Rosie Mimms his seat on the trolley every morning, evenings, too, if necessary. Why is Marshall Anthony so inquisitive about Kathryn Johnson? The girls out east wish to know why Elsie Parham acts so sophisticated when she comes to the Park? Doesn't she care to be bothered with her supposed-to-be friends? Out north the North-western center is still jumping every Friday night, and I might add that new faces are forever turning up and are frequently demanding attention in the social spotlight. Rose Marie Wilson, who lives far north, was handed her surprise of the year when Trill Stewart and a bunch of friends gave a party in honor of Rose's birthday. It was held at Rose's "shack," and was truly a surprise. While everyone was bringing sizeable gifts, Well, Beverly, now don't you feel like a nickel birthday card. Hey, Beverly, now don't you feel cheap? But while all this was going on Trill was having the chat of her life with Carl Slye, a lad from Lexington, Ky., while Joan Turner was being dealt with verbally by Bushrod, and Howard League and Billy Walker made their way to the kitchen to receive their servings, which were the main interest for them. Saturday night is still the night of nights for bobby-soxers, and they continue to pack the spacious ballroom in the Walker. In observing the crowd I noticed that Rose Kurtz is constantly watching Jack Jordan's every move. Could she be jealous of him and his many chicks, or is she just wishing she could draw his attention? I also noticed Rose Marie Tolliver having a krazee time. But it bothers me to think that Frank Phillips is losing ground to a very cool fellow, so Frankie, you'd better wake up and straighten up or Rose might strike you out as the number one man, or you might be marked out completely. In making further observations, I got the impression that Peggy Miller might be losing her grip on Earl Tolliver, but Josephine Brown sure had a tight grip around his neck when they were dancing on "I Love You, Yes I Do."

Peeking further through the crowd I happened to spy Julia Pipes sitting in over near the wall chatting with some fellow, but when asked who she was she said she didn't know him, and that he was only sitting next to her, but Julia, I'm not blind. Well, D. F. Snyder has gone and done it again! From the things I hear about the kid, he's planning to go the Coliseum Thursday night, and of course he must take a chick. The box seats are already reserved, and of course he'll provide all the trimmings (cabs, etc.). He hasn't yet decided on the chick, but he'll undoubtedly accept the first offer he gets. All the kids are wondering when Ollie Garrett and James Battles are going to give another get-together. The last one was great. What's the deal between Sett Smith and Betty Payne? Where has Joan Smith been keeping herself these days? You don't hear much from her any more. Roscoe Carney hasn't been seen much lately. "Big Willie" is still playing all the girls, I see. What is Ernest Bransford trying to do? Each evening he walks a bunch of girls down to the Walker corner. The Attacks glee club will have to do without Albert Rose next year. How are James Battles and "Gin" getting along these days? What's wrong with Marshall Williams and Ollie Garrett? Why doesn't Richard "Tang" Dudley tell Joan Jarman that he likes her? He does, you know. Why doesn't Trevor Bacon talk to a certain girl at the dance? What's the deal between Delores Pervine and a certain northside boy? Where is Delores Williams? She hasn't been seen lately. Pauline Garrett seems to have run out of boy friends. Jean Sullivan and Wilma Patton seemed to have a good time at the Tea for Teenagers last week with Richard Dudley. I wonder how Norma Martin and Vernon Shack are getting along. James Rose seems to have a lot of admirers. Why does Clarence Gardner always go out to Haughville every Friday and Sunday night? What's the deal between Mary Jenkins and Leonard Mame? Could it be love? What's the deal between Harriet Webster and David Harrison? It seems as though they are trying to get started all over again. She admits she still likes him, but he doesn't believe her. I guess he will find out before it's too late. Fred Taylor is really coming on with the girls, but does he think it will last long? What happened to Barbara Jean Hoots? Who is the important fellow in Margaret Graves' life? Who is the fellow in Maxine Elliott's life? Could it be D. H.? Have you seen Jean Sullivan and Charles Robinson off-time? Really you should, kids, because they do it so great. Why do Jean Mitchell and Jean Sullivan leave the Casino every Saturday at 10? Why does Eddie Moss always sit around in corners at the Tea for Teenagers? Could he be bashful? Why did Betty Shields get so excited when a certain chick said Francis Smith was coming home Thursday? Look out for wedding bells.

Inside Anderson

By HERBERT CAMERON

ANDERSON — The Madison County branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will hold its annual meeting and election of officers Sunday, November 30, 4:30 to 6 p. m., at the West Side community center.

Mrs. Priscilla Dean Lewis, prominent civic worker, former president of the Indianapolis branch of the NAACP, will be the principal speaker.

Reports will be heard from the various committees on the state of conditions in the city of Anderson, what steps have been instituted for improvement, what progress has been made, and what can be expected during the coming year. Key members of the committees are William Miller, Zebadiah Christian, William H. Harper and Mesdames William Davis, James W. Bailey, and Robert Miller.

Roosevelt Carter, president of the local chapter, will be in charge of the meeting.

One of the highlights of the program will be presentation of a report by Mrs. Peggy Landers concerning the informative State Conference of the NAACP, held in Ft. Wayne last month. She was a delegate from Anderson to this conference.

A special program has been arranged for your enjoyment. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting. The public is invited to attend this meeting.

This type of an organization can exist and function only with the cooperation of all freedom-loving people of goodwill. Time, talent, money, energy, sacrificial efforts, unity of purpose and accord are just a few of the virtues necessary for the successful operation of any organization.

Many branches of the NAACP throughout our country have proven, with aggressive leadership, that it is the machinery capable of performing a successful operation on old Jim Crow. First they take out his tonsils and adenoids. Then his teeth, so he can't bite anybody. Sometimes it is necessary to consult a specialist in a few cases which are slow to respond to treatment. Dr. United States Supreme Court invariably diagnoses the patient as being full of a dreaded disease which is undermining the very foundations of our country, the same as our U. S. S. C. does. But Dr. U. S. S. C. goes a lot further and prescribes certain treatments, with enforcement powers, for the sick patient. And everything works out alright for everybody concerned.

It reminds me of many instances with my children who cut up and act like all little folks do. When I call a halt to their activities they seem to continue their pandemonium. That is, until I administer the rod. Evidently that was all they were waiting for — they sleep so sound. As long as they can get away with it they will keep on doing it. You have to talk to them, plead with them, and finally show them that you mean business. A good understanding is good for everybody.

If, after hearing the annual report of our local branch of the NAACP, you may have occasion to think that it has done little and is not sufficient for an organization of its type, blame no one but yourselves. They don't go around digging up trouble, but if you bring it to them they will certainly take care of it for you.

A lot of people here in Anderson have had justified complaints and reason enough for a redress in the law courts of our country but they have been so yellow and so low down and onery and uncooperative with those great historical charters of American freedom that I could call it that) that they haven't had the guts to complain or file a suit for their civil rights. They won't even consider the machinery of the NAACP, National Urban League, Elks Department of Civil Liberties, or the Progressive Civic League of Anderson. Fear is a disease, too.

Our local NAACP can let you see the beauty of this machinery in action if you will only let it help you and bear your troubles on its broad shoulders. Take it from me they can really do a fine job if you will only let them do it.

entertainment will be the presentation of the Mellow Tone Singers, Indianapolis, in recital at Second Baptist church by the Busy Bee club. The time is set for 3 p. m.

It certainly would be nice if these mighty fine programs would not conflict with one another. Nevertheless, I intend to keep you posted about the fine things in life.

I have just received news that Rev. Douglas Williams, pastor of Bethesda Baptist church, will preach his farwell sermon Sunday, Dec. 7. He is the famous radio preacher who broadcasts every Sunday over the facilities of radio station WCBC 9 to 9:30 a. m. I have known for a long time that he has yearned for the state of Ohio, where he has spent a good many happy years of his life, especially around the vicinity of Columbus. Maybe this is his dream come true. A lot of us will miss him.

The Friendship Baptist church chorus is now known as the Silver-tone Radio Gospel chorus. It can be heard each Sunday morning 9:30 to 10:00 o'clock over radio station WCBC, 1470 on your dial. The program will be under the very capable direction of the pianist, Professor Rogers.

Miss Martha Ann Patterson and Donald Early will stand before the preacher and say "I do" Thanksgiving Day, at 4:30 p. m. A reception will follow at the home of the parents of the bride at 1512 Hendricks st.

A community chorus was organized last Tuesday under the direction of talented Mrs. Alberta Tucker. She was greatly appreciative and encouraged by the support she received at this initial attempt. The next rehearsal is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 2. Mrs. Tucker is our noted nightingale of Gospel Spirituals, and can be heard over Station WCBC on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 10:15 to 10:30 a. m. Write your request to her. She will be more than glad to grant it.

Mesdames Fannie Jackson and Margarette Jones and Professor and Mrs. Rogers, were guests at the thirty anniversary of the Glenda Squires Studio of Gospel Music, observed at Mount Olive Baptist church, Indianapolis last week.

NO ATLANTA JIMCROW FOR FREEDOM TRAIN

ATLANTA (ANP)—Mayor William B. Hartsfield declared last week that there will be no racial segregation in the Freedom Train exhibition to be held here Jan. 2. Following a statement from the American Heritage foundation which ordered the train to avoid Memphis because its city officials insisted on segregation, Mayor Hartsfield commented:

"In Atlanta the Freedom Train will be open at all times to all persons regardless of race or creed."

"The exhibits on the Freedom Train are those priceless documents guaranteeing the basic freedoms of the American people. I do not see how anybody can draw a color line through freedom and justice."

"So far as I am concerned, I am willing to stand beside any American citizen, regardless of race or creed, in mutual admiration and respect for those great historical charters of American freedom."

The mayor already had appointed Negroes to a committee of citizens who will implement the proper significance during the Freedom week celebration.

A PRAYER FOR THE TIMES

By CARTER JEWELL For ANP

We pray today, O God, that the peoples of the earth will recognize and appreciate the oneness of humanity—the historical and social relationship of the various races, cultures, and creeds of our world.

Help us, O our Father, to banish hate from our hearts, to abolish malice, prejudice, and envy from the world — hate toward any race of whatsoever color, clime or national origin. May there be no malice in our hearts toward whites or blacks, Jews or Gentiles, Catholics or Protestants, Americans or foreigners. You made us all, O God and we are brothers. May the poor not envy the rich, nor Americans their foreign brothers, nor Southerners their kin in the North.

We pray especially, O our Father, that the oppressed, the despised and the hated will not

COLOR BAN OF MISS. GOP HIT BY STASSEN

BLOOM, Miss. (NNPA)—Harold E. Stassen last week bluntly told the "illy-white" faction of the Republican party in Mississippi that he would not accept their support unless they dropped the color line which they have drawn in the past.

Stopping here briefly at the United States Air Force's Keesler Field, he called on Mississippi's "illy-white" Republicans to reorganize and revitalize the party in the State.

This was interpreted as a direct slap at Perry W. Howard, Republican national committeeman who for a number of years has headed the interracial delegation which Republican national conventions have seated.

The "illy-white" group, formally known as the Independent Republican party of Mississippi, is led by George L. Sheldon, a former governor of Nebraska, who is its secretary. Sheldon greeted Mr. Stassen here and sought his support against the so-called "black and tan" faction led by Mr. Howard.

Mr. Stassen agreed with Mr. Sheldon that the Republican party in Mississippi should be revitalized and reorganized, but added:

"I also emphasize to you that in that reorganization, I would not accept the support of any delegation on the basis of race, color or religion, and the reorganization of the party must be in accordance with the Constitution of the United States."

Mr. Stassen's statement about revitalization and reorganization was interpreted as a determination to make a bid for the eight delegates which Mississippi Republicans will elect to the Republican national convention. Because of Mr. Howard's support of the candidacy of Senator Robert A. Taft, Republican of Ohio, the Mississippi delegation is regarded as safely in the Taft column.

Delegations elected from Mississippi by the "illy-white" group have been invariably denied seats in the Republican national convention because of their exclusion of colored Republicans from county, district and state conventions.

permitted their experiences to make their hearts revengeful, their souls bitter and their minds prejudiced. Help, we pray, those who sow seeds of discord, hatred and death in America and the world.

Help Negroes, and Jews, and Catholics and Protestants, American born and foreign born in our midst to make love and liberty, justice and peace the basis of their righteous fight for a better world, not selfishly for themselves, individually for all the races, nations, creeds and minorities all over the world.

Help all of us to understand that no group can achieve or guarantee justice, liberty, security and peace through any kind of force, except love. May the rich and haughty races and nations realize that domination by brute force and money cannot last. Amen.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (NNPA)—The majority of unemployed workers in the Fort Wayne, Indiana labor market area consists of colored women who want factory jobs only, and laid off workers from the radio and other electrical equipment factories, the United States Employment Service said in a roundup on labor market areas last week.

The agency estimated that between 3,500 and 4,000 persons are unemployed in the Fort Wayne area at the present time and said a large percentage of the unemployed is not likely to be called back to former jobs during the calendar year.

The demand for labor in this area is largely for highly skilled factory workers and in professional occupations, and many of the unemployed do not meet these requirements, the report said.

Reporting on the labor situation in the Shreveport, La., area, the USES said approximately 5,750 persons are unemployed in that area and that of that number 2,600 or about 45 per cent are colored people.

The report said there is a surplus of workers in the semi-skilled and unskilled groups in that area which will be "greatly augmented" by agricultural workers entering the non agricultural labor market at the close of the farming season.

In the Muskegon, Michigan, area the USES found an increase in the employment of colored workers which was proportionate with the general increase in employment reported by that area.

The report said that on August 15 colored workers comprised 10 per cent of the workers in the major non-farm establishments as compared with 9.1 per cent in July and 9.3 per cent in June.

A report on the "labor surplus" in the Charlotte, North Carolina, area said 15 per cent of the "surplus" workers there are colored, but added that during the next four months there will be a gradual decline of jobless workers as those temporarily laid off are recalled and students return to school.

N. Y. Solon Sponsors Civil Rights Bill In U. S. Congress

WASHINGTON, D. C. (NNPA)—Three of the bills Representative Emanuel Celler, Democrat of New York, promised he would introduce during the special session of Congress to carry out recommendations of the President's Committee on Civil Rights were dropped into the legislative hopper last week.

Two of the bills are designed to strengthen sections 51 and 42 Title 18 of the United States Code.

The amendment he proposed to section 51 would impose penalties on individuals as well as upon conspirators. Section 51 makes it a federal offense, punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 and imprisonment for not more than ten years, for two or more persons to conspire to injure persons in the exercise of federally-secured rights.

Federally-secured rights include the right to vote and have that vote counted, to run for federal office, to be free from "voluntary servitude, to have access to the federal courts, to be a witness in the federal courts, to inform federal officers concerning federal offenses, and to journey to the national capital on federal business.

The amendment Mr. Celler proposed to section 42 would increase the penalties for civil redress and define more specifically constitutional rights.

Other points of the executive committee statement touched on phases of the civil rights report dealing with loyalty investigation and with questions of world peace.

"We share the anxiety of the committee for proper safeguards for the rights of the individual. I should be possible to accomplish all that is needed in the way of security without jeopardizing rights that in our constitution are held to be inviolable. . . . We can not hope to influence other peoples to accept the Christian way of life, or other nations to accept the democratic principles we proclaim unless we can demonstrate in our own community living that we take them seriously."

Recognizing that there may be honest differences of opinion on several recommendations of the Truman committee, the statement points out that "The Federal Council, having already laid down what it regards as basic Christian principles (in previous actions), is especially interested in what may be done to work out the implications of these principles in practical procedures."

The statement points to the Christian concern for the individual which is central in the civil rights report. "In several respects the report lifts into prominence certain positions taken by the Federal Council at a special meeting in Columbus, O., in March, 1946. It is now the special responsibility and opportunity of the churches

UNITY NEEDED IN AMERICA

By CARTER JEWELL for ANP

With America attempting under the Marshall plan to play a major role in preventing the collapse of European civilization and culture, there is great need that America make sure that her own culture and traditions are protected by the will and unstinted support of a united people.

Americans must recognize the contributions of all their diverse cultures, races and groups in order to properly appreciate all the groups in their midst.

We had a Civil war once and that separated the north from the south and divided the Methodist Episcopal church into the Methodist church, South and the Methodist church, North. We had slavery until 1865 and that divided the country into white Democrats and black Republicans. As soon as we had been in America long enough for a generation or two, we had been divided into American born and foreign born. The Civil war also divided whites into Yankees and Rebels and so the stars and stripes. These oppositions still exist to too great an extent.

Some of our citizens adhere to the Hebrew religion, others to the Roman Catholic church. These credal differences cause disunity between Jews and Catholics, and so-called pure stock Americans dislike both Jews and Catholics. And to make a good measure of hate, some of these people put Negroes in the same class though Negroes are found in the Catholic church, some are Protestants, adhering to just about every denomination known.

All sorts of prejudices and traditional hatreds divide Americans. Material richness is not the main strength of a people. Nor is numbers a sufficient strength. When moral, spiritual and cultural forces are lacking in united form any nation is at a great disadvantage. I have a friend who says the United States is misnamed because it is not united. He calls us a Disjointed States. He proves his point on the grounds that Americans are not united at all.

Our churches and schools must be mobilized to do a job of educating the American people to appreciate every type of group, color, creed and culture in the nation. America is the product of diverse cultures, different races, different creeds and different thoughts.

Americans have lost more than can ever be illustrated or evaluated by the ignorance of some of our groups to others. The dead weight of ignorance has sapped our moral, spiritual, and cultural strength in the same way that failure to put all the necessary ingredients into the pot weakens the food.

Dr. Rachel Davis DuBois has seen America's weakness in her failure to teach the cultures of all groups in our public schools. She has spent 20 years proving how much good can be accomplished by a well planned and well executed program of inter-cultural education. Others who see the problem as she does have assisted with this most essential work for the strengthening of America's cultural front and spiritual wealth.

There are no superior races and no superior cultures anywhere in the world. We have got to see humanity as one, the world as one and the United States as one. The oneness of humanity presupposes the oneness of American citizens. These fundamental truths must be taught in our schools and churches and what is more they must be experienced in the cooperative living and sharing of all the races, groups and creeds in America. There is no other way to make America strong enough and inspiring enough to help save Europe.

LEON RANSOM WINS KAPPAS' LAUREL WREATH

WASHINGTON, D. C. (NNPA)—The Laurel Wreath, achievement award of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, will be presented to Leon A. Ransom, former vice dean of the Howard University Law School and now a practicing attorney here, at ceremonies in Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel or the university campus Sunday afternoon.

The Presentation will be made by Earl Dickerson, of Chicago, former polemararch of the fraternity. The ceremonies will take place at 5:30 p. m.

Mr. Ransom was selected for the award upon the recommendation of an awards committee made to the Kappa convention in Los Angeles last summer.

The selection went to him because of his defense of the defendants in the Columbia, Tennessee, race riot trials. In a case which extended over a seven-month period, during which an all-white jury heard scores of witnesses in a trial electrified by racial tensions, as chief defense counsel he won acquittal for twenty-five defendant charged with inciting the riot. Later, on appeal, he succeeded in having the remaining two defendants freed.

'LA' Architect Will Design $3,000,000 Mental Hospital

LOS ANGELES (ANP)—The Board of Supervisors here has appointed Paul R. Williams, one of the leading architects of the country, to design the new $3,000,000 psychopathic hospital unit for Los Angeles county. The commission was made last week largely through the efforts of Supervisor Leonard J. Roach who was determined that merit should be the sole criterion in the selection of an architect.

Although Williams will be the first Negro to design a large public building in Los Angeles, he has an enviable record in designing homes for many Hollywood movie stars, political and industrial leaders. Roach declared, "regardless of race, color or creed, I was motivated entirely by the desire to obtain for the people of Los Angeles the best available talent for the building which is to be erected as the result of a grand jury recommendation, and I am confident that Mr. Williams' outstanding ability will prove to be of inestimable value to us."

There are no superior races and no superior cultures anywhere in the world. We have got to see humanity as one, the world as one and the United States as one. The oneness of humanity presupposes the oneness of American citizens. These fundamental truths must be taught in our schools and churches and what is more they must be experienced in the cooperative living and sharing of all the races, groups and creeds in America. There is no other way to make America strong enough and inspiring enough to help save Europe.

URGES STRONG STAND BY U. S. ON AFRICA

NEW YORK (ANP)—Leaders of the Council on African Affairs at a conference last week with Francis B. Sayre, U. S. representative on the trusteeship committee of the UN General Assembly, in the field of politics. She pointed out that politics offers an opportunity for participation in the government, it offers progress, prosperity and security. Politics, she said, is the best medium for reaching a goal.

Few, she declared, pay any attention to integration in religious, political, community or government interest, but nobody can beat Negroes throwing social slimy. Too many society women turn up their noses when the word politics is spoken. They think of politics as being something dirty, a game, a graft, smoke-filled rooms, or party machine. But politics, she declared is "government in action" or better still "citizenship at work."

Speaking on the subject "Republican Victory Through Unity," Mrs. Diggs, who is secretary of labor in New York state, told the women that they must work on a non-partisan approach in salvaging our democracy today. "Group action gets results, unity of purpose will serve us well," she declared. It takes both Democrats and Republicans to solve this lynching, poll tax and segregation problem.

In mentioning that the NAACP has submitted a brief to the United Nation Civil Rights commission pointing up discriminatory practices in America thus bringing America's shortcomings to the forefront; and the report of the President's Civil Rights committee which focused the nation's attention on these problems, she told the Republican women to not allow selfish or partisan interests to cause them to hedge at this point, but to work on a non-partisan basis in helping to remedy the injustices to all American citizens.

She pointed out how women of other races spend endless hours working on committees, attending conventions, planning dinners, luncheons, and forums. They work equally as hard getting out pamphlets, forming telephone brigades, supplying cars and babysitters while others go to the polls. One can understand then why these women are so reluctant to have Negro women come, after all the basic work has been completed, wearing their minks and for wraps and expecting to take a key position at the top.

National Dental Ass'n. Maps Drive For Scholarships

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The National Dental Ass'n. announced here last week that the Scholarship Fund of the organization covering scholarships for needy dental students at Howard University and Meharry Dental College is to be financed by sale of Scholarship Stamps to members. Dr. H. C. Edwards of this city, chairman of the Scholarship Committee is distributing through his office the stamps to all members of the National Dental Ass'n. Scholarship Fund Committee members distributing stamps in their areas include: Dr. H. S. Cullum, Chicago, Ill.; Dr. J. W. Jamerson, Savannah, Ga.; Dr. W. M. Culbert, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Dr. R. L. SOMETHING TO BE THANKFUL FOR

In these days of "eat less," the high cost of living and the atom bomb, it may have occurred to some readers that there is little to be thankful for this Thanksgiving Day.

We believe, however, that such is not the case. Let us enumerate some of the blessings enjoyed by the great majority of our readers, but not by every man and woman in the land.

There is in the first place the deep and abiding joy of a clear conscience. We can be thankful that it is not we who sleep the uneasy slumber of the hate-monger. Although persecuted and borne down, we are not attempting to oppress any people on the face of the earth. We are not the ones who take to the press and radio with efforts to inflame the land in strife and violence.

We can be thankful, most of us, that we are among the world's producers, rather than destroyers. In so far as we are given the opportunity, we pass our lives in labor and other vital services. The wealth of America rests on our shoulders, for we are daily creating it. Those who are idly consuming the goods created by the toil of others, are not to be found in any numbers in our ranks.

We can be thankful, finally, because we can look forward to a future of progress. We have come from a long night, and are now on the threshold of a mighty dawn. Although with setbacks and stumbling-blocks, we are looking up and we are going up. Not for us is the bitter knowledge that our best days are over; we can be thankful that our time is yet to come, as the fruit of our honest and self-sacrificing struggle.

"MYTHICAL" CITY FOOTBALL CROWN

Quite a problem was dumped into the laps of the daily newspaper sports editors when they were called on to determine the mythical Indianapolis high school football championship last week.

We do not envy these sports editors their task and, to speak frankly, we do not think much of their solution. It appears that the crown is "mythical" in more ways than one.

The only undefeated, untied squad in city play was Crispus Attucks. The Tigers were victorious over Sacred Heart and Cathedral, the only teams which would play them.

The crown was awarded, however, to Shortridge, which wound up the season with four victories, no defeats, but one tie.

It is customary in football ratings to count a tie as half a game won and half a game lost. This is the practice in the Big Nine college league, as well as the North Central Conference high school circuit.

Following this established procedure, the two squads would rank as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Tied	Percent
Crispus Attucks	2	0	0	1.000
Shortridge	4	0	1	.900

From this it can be seen that in order to award the championship to Shortridge, it was necessary to do violence to the statistics.

The explanation was given that Crispus Attucks did not play enough city teams. But as mentioned above, it was the other way around. Not enough city teams played Attucks. The Tigers were willin'.

In fact, we believe that it was Shortridge which did not play enough city teams to claim the championship. The Blue Devils should have played one more; namely, Alonzo Watford's crew.

If the sports editors are going to decide who would have won if the two squads had met, then it would be simpler to do away with football games altogether and just have debates between sports writers. For instance, everybody knew that Army was going to beat Columbia—everybody except Columbia, that is. Final score: Columbia '21, Army '20.

The doubly-mythical football championship is one more mess to be laid at the door of prejudice in the Indianapolis school system. There will be no true champion in our city until there is fair play throughout the schools.

"NO FREEDOM FOR THE FREEDOM TRAIN?"

Made in the U.S.A. democracy may be imposed upon many millions of distressed peoples of several areas of the world to follow the misfortunes of war. But wise and practical observers are now venturing that democracy is being weighed in the balance on the American scene, U.S.A.

All around us there are concrete evidences that democracy as represented in our Republic has "feet of clay." And the colossal superstructure, whatever its make-up, out of the deeds of not infallible mortals, again is being weighed in the balance.

While individuals, some times or places branded as false prophets, are presently clamouring about preserving democracy and promotion of justice, liberty and freedom in our land, a "Freedom Train" bearing certain historical instruments has been scheduled to visit every state of the Union.

But the "Freedom Train" it now appears must pass up certain areas in the Southland, with its cargo bearing testimony that liberty, justice and freedom exist in the land and abide in the hearts or minds of all the people. Thus the "Freedom Train" may not visit Tennessee, or Memphis "the hub of big things in central Dixieland."

In sustaining jimcrowism, the Mayor of Memphis proposed that the "Freedom Train" exhibition be opened to white people at certain hours and to Negro people at other hours. In another observation he stated, "the Negro people would be embarrassed if segregation policies were removed."

Further Mayor James J. Pleasants of Memphis said, "Memphis Negroes are the best in the world and they are satisfied with conditions here."

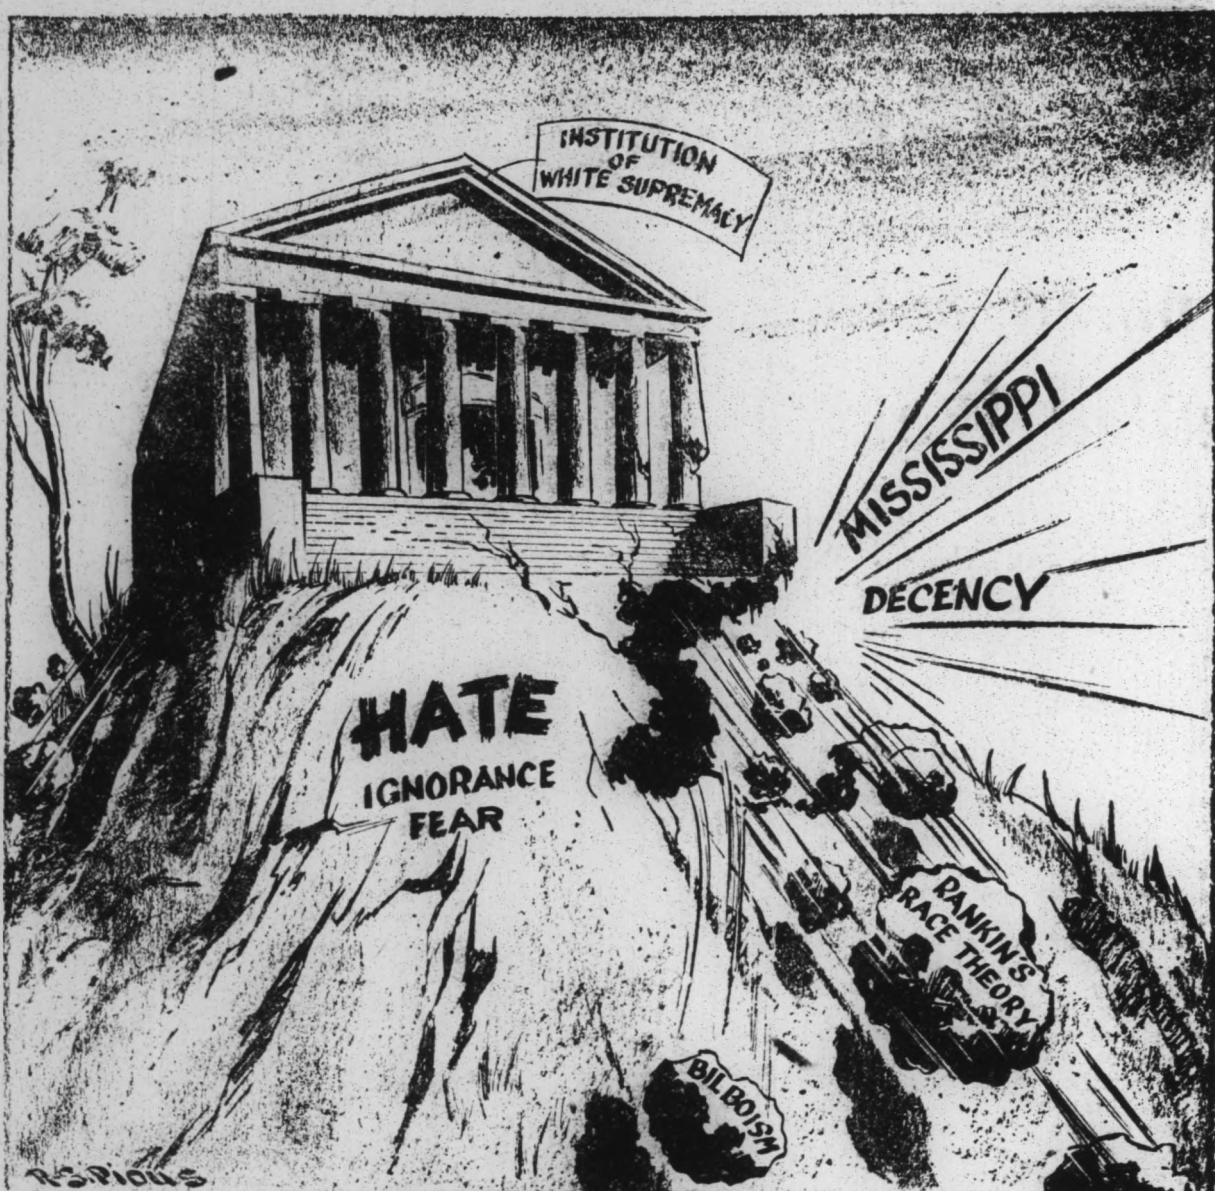

A resolution adopted by the American Heritage Foundation which sponsors the "Freedom Train" says: "No segregation of any individuals or groups of any kind on the basis of race or religion will be allowed at any exhibition of the 'Freedom Train' held anywhere."

Documents on the "Freedom Train" includes the Declaration of Independence and the U. S. Constitution, and the letter and spirit of these two great documents are in distinct contradiction to the philosophy of Mayor Pleasants. But neither the spirit or letter of these two great documents have ever been tried in Dixieland. And there is no freedom for the "Freedom Train" in the Southland, but a great day may come.

"WHAT IS CIVILIZATION?"

A Lutheran cleric of New York state, associated with the Negro group in his origin, recently made a tour of the Southland. He wore a turban and affected a foreign accent. A man above the average intellectual level by repute, he reports that the turban and foreign accent proved the entree to the best social, civic and business circles on the Gulf Coast of Alabama.

He was able to avoid second class travel accommodations for which Negro people pay first class fare, and still did not risk losing his life. And again he was not disturbed with the problem of obtaining desirable food or lodging, or other affronts met by Negro people traveling in certain areas of our land.

"THE HOUSE THAT BILBO AND RANKIN BUILT!"

He stated that his disguise was not conceived or used to fool any one, but to learn something. No one asked him if he was a Negro, but he said he felt at times like a paratrooper behind enemy lines. His fate might have been equally as uncertain in Mobile, Alabama. Because he stated he had his meals in the most exclusive restaurants and met the leading citizens on a man to man plane.

A hoax on a fallacious tradition of our surroundings of Christian culture and democratic civilization takes place some where each day of the year, where the "strong blood of Negro people" flows in the veins of otherwise white men and women. Because by custom or tradition an individual with any admitted trace of Negro blood becomes a Negro to be compromised or restricted in the wider range of high hopes or aspirations and related activities in their surroundings.

But the comedy of errors encompassed in our fixed tradition on inferior peoples is largely a work or responsibility of the Southland. The Southland has played both sides of the road for better or worse and two-thirds of the Negro people of the land have white ancestry in their backgrounds, some times or places including Presidents of the United States.

There are millions of Negro people who cannot pose as white people, and on affecting a foreign accent or wearing a turban they might not realize the ends of social justice or a semblance of fair play on the economic front. But a truly wise and honest philosopher on contemplating the American scene (U.S.A.) must raise the question, "What is civilization at its best?"

Labor Views

LABOR POLITICS

AT ATLANTIC CITY

Trade union conventions follow the best traditions of political gatherings in the United States. They display all the virtues and all the faults of American politics and the most calloused and cynical Republican or Democratic politician would be perfectly at home in one during the report of the resolutions committee and during the struggle over the election of officers. These old line politicians might have learned a thing or two from the recent CIO Auto Workers convention which was ring-mastered by Walter Reuther at Atlantic City.

During the convention of 1946 the Anti-Reuther forces captured one of the largest districts in the union. But they lost it in '47 through the "smart" politics of the Reutherites.

For purposes of convenience we shall call this district Borderline for during most of '46 and '47 the Reutherites and the Anti-Reutherites were about equally balanced with the edge in favor of the Anti-Reutherites.

The Anti-Reutherites elected the district director, who automatically became a member of the union's 22 man executive board and the chief patronage dispenser and manager of the union's affairs in Borderline district. The first thing he did was to fire all the Reutherites and fill up the payroll with Anti-Reutherites at very respectable salaries. Veteran Negro organizers were fired and other Negroes hired in their place.

The Anti-Reutherites were riding high while the friends of Reuther worked in plants at night to earn their living and tried during the day to service the local unions under their influence. In the face of regional office opposition, this was a really lean period for the Reutherites in Borderline. But never once did they let up in their attack on the Anti-Reutherites in control of the Borderline district office. Everything Borderline officials did was wrong and when the Borderline regional director supported the move to bring the left-wing Farm Equipment Workers into the Auto Workers union the Reutherites succeeded in making the rank and file union members believe it was a scheme to turn the whole union over to the Communists.

When delegates were elected to the 1947 convention, the Borderline regional director felt he had enough votes to win. The Reutherites felt they had enough to beat him hands down. On the way to and in Atlantic City leaders of both factions continued to "work" on the delegates.

But the Reutherites did not plan to take any chances. When they saw that the Reuther forces had complete control of the convention and its powerful special committee, the Reutherites from Borderline told their friends at the convention to extend the boundaries of Borderline so that it would include enough pro-Reuther votes to make it possible to defeat Borderline's Anti-Reuther director.

The deal was about ready to be pushed through the convention when the Reutherites, still playing safe and smart, sounded out the delegates from the area to be added to Borderline. To their surprise they discovered that the Anti-Reutherite director of Borderline had out-guessed them and had all the delegates pledged to him. The Reutherites from Borderline hurriedly blocked the merger resolution while it was on the way to the convention floor.

The Reutherites from Borderline district again checked their forces. The Negro delegates were about equally divided between the two factions. The Reutherites discovered they could be certain of victory only if they could pick up 50 additional votes. They looked about, picked out 50 luke-warm, anti-Reuther delegates from Borderline. They rented a suite of rooms at a nearby hotel and launched their campaign.

They had the hotel management remove the furniture from the rooms and to put in chairs, tables and couches. Negro and white delegates pooled their money and were stocked up with choice wines and whiskies. They brought in entertainment both musical and female and solid and liquid refreshment with emphasis on the liquid. The Reutherites saw to it that the 50 captive delegates were practically secluded from the other delegates.

FAC BOARD SCORES
APPARENT CRIME WAVE
To The Editor
The Recorder
Dear Sir:

The present wave of crime leads us to believe that life and property in metropolitan Indianapolis are insecure and that all acts of violence should be followed by punishment of the perpetrators of such acts—punishment commensurate with the nature of the crime.

It is our further belief that present conditions are the direct result of the lack of certain, complete and swift punishment of those who are permitted to commit acts of violence repeatedly. We must not too often temper justice with mercy when it is likely to impede the overall purpose of insuring domestic tranquility.

Therefore, we the members of the Board of Directors of the Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc., representing over 6500 members who are citizens and taxpayers of Indianapolis do respectfully urge that we not only deal with apprehended criminals in an appropriate manner but we also make an effort to eliminate these factors in the community which are definite causes leading to certain criminal careers. To this end we solicit your militant cooperation and trust that effective action on your part will forthwith ensue.

Respectfully yours

UNAVA BACKS DRIVE FOR TERMINAL LEAVE PAY
To The Editor
The Recorder
Dear Sir:

Last June, the United Negro and Allied Veterans of America took the lead among veterans organizations in this country in waging a fight to reclaim more than a quarter of a billion dollars in Terminal Leave Pay claims due Negro veterans of World War II.

We had a bill introduced to extend the period for filing claims for unused Terminal Leave from September 1, 1947 to September 1, 1948, such a bill was passed.

We carried a delegation to the War Department and got the Department to issue to us 500,000 Terminal Leave Pay Blanks. We distributed these blanks, at our expense to newspapers, churches and other key agencies throughout the country. To date we have distributed 350,000 blanks. But the job is by no means over. There are still thousands of Negro vets, a great many, in rural areas, who have not yet filed, and many who do not even know they have money due them.

We have submitted some publicity material to the Negro Press generally which has been prepared by the War Department at our request, we hope you have received this material, "do's and don'ts" about Terminal Leave pay, and will use the same.

Finally we advise all war veterans that if they are interested in information about Terminal Leave pay, write to the United Negro and Allied Veterans of America, 825 You Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.

Agriculture experiment stations received Federal grants-in-aid for agricultural research. The States provide from $2.50 to $3 for every dollar provided by the Federal Government. Colored land-grant colleges do not share directly in the funds provided for the experiment stations.

Legislation under which the Federal grants are made are the Hatch Act of March 2, 1887, the Adams Act of March 16, 1906, the Purnell Act of February 21, 1925, and the Jones-Bankhead Act of June 29, 1935.

The Hatch Act provided for the establishment of agricultural experiment stations under the direction of the land-grant college or colleges in each State or territory. The station is a division of the land-grant college.

The Adams Act authorized an appropriation of $5,000 a year to each State and territory for the experiment stations. This sum was increased at the rate of $2,000 a year until the total for each State and territory reached $15,000.

Under the maximum provisions of the Hatch and Adams Act, each State and territory received Federal grants of $30,000 annually for the support of the stations. The Adams Act, each State and territory by $20,000 for the year ending June 30, 1936, and authorized increase of $10,000 annually until the year ending June 30, 1930, when the amount from all Federal sources reached $90,000 annually for each State and territory.

The Hatch and Adams Acts were concerned exclusively with the productive phases of agriculture. The Purnell Act provided for the stimulation of research in marketing, rural sociology, and home economics.

The Bankhead-Jones Act authorized an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the first fiscal year after its passage, with an increase of $1,000,000 a year until the annual appropriation reached $5,000,000.

For the fiscal year 1946 there was expended for the operation of the experiment stations in the forty-eight States, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico a total of $27,577,149. Of this sum, Federal grants totaled $7,190,295 and non-Federal funds, $20,386,854.

In Southern States these funds were distributed as follows:
Alabama Polytechnic Institute—Federal, $179,423.98; non-Federal, $472,327.42; total, $651,751.40.
University of Arkansas—Federal, $158,648.70; non-Federal, $197,624.90; total, $356,273.60.

CRIME CANNOT BE SOLVED BY BRUTALITY OR HYSTERIA

The public consternation and hysteria following in the wake of the current crime wave is matched only by the bungling of public officials and the ineptness of our police department.

The public has reacted in an emotional manner more characteristic of mobs than of an intelligent citizenry and, fomented by a dose of yellow journalism and a tinge of race baiting by the daily press, a tension has developed along the color line.

The public officials, frustrated in their efforts to do anything constructive by their sheer inability to reason, have like the king in "Alice in Wonderland" jumped on their horse and ridden off madly in all directions.

The top police officers, chosen because of the political regularity rather than because of their fitness intellectually, temperamentally or morally to hold their positions of public trust, have acted in a manner that casts serious doubt upon their fitness even as citizens and creates a crisis in our already shaky race relations.

It is not the purpose of this column to condemn either crime or criminals of whatever racial identification nor to suggest that crimes can be solved by pampering the criminals. But it is perhaps permissible to suggest that the prevention of anti-social acts is a far better solution than waiting until a crime has been committed and then finding SOMEONE to punish for it.

To the public and to city officials it should be pointed out that it has long been known that ignorance, poverty, maltreatment and slums are the great progenitors of crime. And it can be easily shown that most of the recent acts against society have been committed by individuals who reside in the blighted areas of our city and whose lives have been passed in unwholesome surroundings.

The fact that many of them have been Negroes is no reason to condemn the whole group of citizens who are so labeled. It is a rather compelling reason to provide more decent housing, more wholesome recreation, better educational opportunities and more decent public and private treatment for Negroes and all underprivileged persons in the city.

The present crisis also suggests that there is need for more and better police protection for the blighted sections of our municipality. In many of the near-down-town and the ghetto neighborhoods the poor lighting and the almost absence of police patrolling are conducive to criminality.

But doubling or tripling the number of policemen in the city is not going to solve the problem of crime nor materially reduce it if the men appointed have nothing to commend them for the jobs except political affiliations, their love for brutal methods or their racial biases. Even as intelligent and more active gendarmerie can do little to halt the crime wave until some of the causes are removed.

And finally regarding the racial bigots and the daily press that seize upon the fact that some Negroes are criminals to castigate a whole race, it must be pointed out that races do not commit crimes and that Negroes have the same rights to have criminals and idiots that they do to have geniuses and outstanding athletes without each member of the group being accused of being the same. Intelligent and fair minded members of the majority group understand this. It is only by getting them to join us that we can solve this and other problems that confront us.

ULTRA-GRADUALISM ATTACKED

It is generally conceded that evolution is just as certainly a part of progress as revolution. The very fact that the present world and world order are what they are because of evolutionary processes in no way precludes what may be regarded as revolutionary. Revolution and evolution are parts of the same wondrous process.

Evolution as applied in race relations has been called "gradualism," a term which carries with it a certain reversion in some sectors of Negro thought. The processes of growth are always gradual but not too gradual, and when the term is applied to race relations it epitomizes the studied attempt of certain foes of Negro advance to stifle the accelerating process.

The danger of being too gradual is the danger sensed by those severe critics of gradualism. This writer has been for years trying to express his fear that certain influences were being allowed to making gradualism too "gradual" for the good of the common cause of better race relations.

In speaking to a white audience recently I used Henry Van Loon's attempted description of eternity. Van Loon says that if a rock a mile high, a mile wide, and a mile long were set in the Atlantic Ocean and a little bird came to this rock once every thousand years to whet his bill; that when the little bird had worn away this mammoth stone, it would represent one minute of eternity. My point was, there is danger that some would wait until the little bird wears the stone away before taking positive action on interracial matters.

Recently the Southern Regional council met in Atlanta and President Paul Williams in his annual address made one of the most vivid references to the kind of gradualism that is eating away at the heart of interracialism. Said Mr. Williams "There are those who are committed to helping the Negro to his rightful place in our democratic social order, but they would do this brick-by-brick with a hundred years between bricks." Mr. Williams thus attacked gradualism with a much needed criticism. His remark in particular and his address in general electrified what was generally conceded to be the best session ever of the Southern Regional council. It was heartening to that fine group to hear a young southerner speak so forthrightly on one of the pressing matters of the hour.

Organized five years ago the council is swinging into vigorous action on many fronts and many worthy objectives are being attained. What is more, there is overwhelming evidence that the South is seething with a spirit of humanism and that it will not much longer be denied. The political turn of events in Mississippi has inspired the forward looking elements of the South both white and Negro. As a young white woman from Mississippi expressed the fear that there may be a reaction, this writer cherishes the hope that although the present tide of civilized decency in the South may recede, it will flow again. It is impossible to stop it now.

The barriers are crumbling all along the line and the unhappy events in Georgia and the Carolinas are not sufficient to controvert the proposition that righteousness is on the march in the Southern regions. Too many decent, self-respecting, educated people have come on the scene for demagoguery to enjoy success. Biblosm and Talmadism and Rankinism are definitely on the defensive. Their tribes will decrease and far faster than most of us suspect.

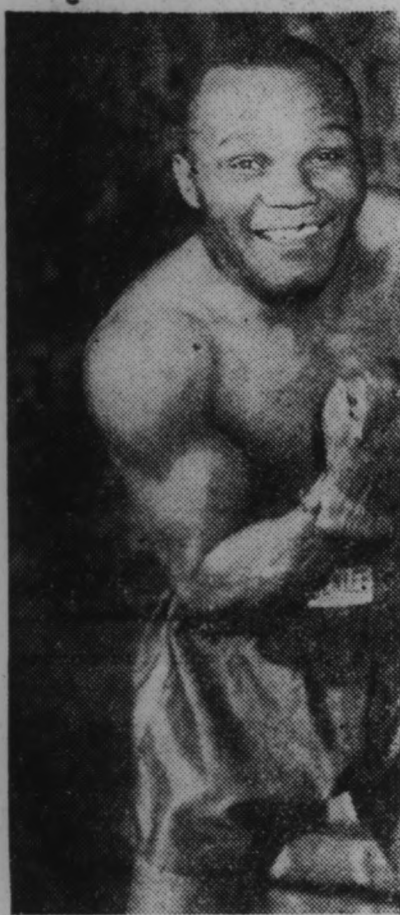

In lecturing to my class in race relations a few days ago I observed the growing moral liberation of the South and begged the young people to prepare themselves quickly for full-fledged citizenship in the South. Situations as now shaping up make this citizenship inevitable. In perhaps so short a time that Negroes may not be prepared to take full advantage of it.

A young woman pressed for some definite notion of what was meant by "preparation" for the impending new day. My reply was, the Negro must develop and that real soon—a sense of self-criticism. We have had built up with the race in the recent past, a definite "resistance complex" through which we protect ourselves from the dominant white man. But our own worthiness is becoming quite as important as the white man's injustice. Negroes need criticism too, and great is our future if Negroes with courage to give it can be found!

No Fear of Joe Louis Held by Joe Walcott

JOE WALCOTT

JOE LOUIS

By AL MOSES

NEW YORK (AP)—At Camp Greenloch, N. J., Arnold Cream, nee Jersey Joe Walcott, fairly oozed confidence as he busied himself with training camp chores. Said the father of six children who on December 5 at Madison Square Garden faces the most devastating heavyweight of any period, "don't let that ace-differential fool you writers, nor the Louis bugaboo."

"From the day I boxed with the world's heavyweight champion and scribbles like the late Damon Runyon and Type Igoe told fans how well I looked against the Bomber,

I felt in my heart I could whip him in a fight with the chips down."

I must say that the barn-shouldered native out of Camden, N. J., looked fit as the proverbial daisy. I said last June when the match was being discussed as a non-title shindig that Louis should whip Walcott before the sixth round comes.

NEW COACH NAMED AT LINCOLN U., PA., C. R. STACKHOUSE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Chester R. Stackhouse, formerly of the University of Michigan coaching staff, will become director of intercollegiate athletics at Lincoln University on Dec. 1, succeeding Prof. Manuel Rivera who has been promoted to the chairmanship of the newly created department of health and physical education. Stackhouse will have charge of scheduling, coaching, and the direct management of all intercollegiate athletics. The changes were made at the recent meeting of the board of trustees of the university.

The department of health and physical education will grant degrees on a par with other departments at the institution.

The board approved a budget of more than $600,000 for the operations of the current year—a 250 percent increase over pre-war years, and created a new department of labor-management relations.

along. I still hold to that opinion. It has been rightly said that the toughest opponent is one who refused to believe that the other fellow can lick him.

I cannot subscribe to thinking that adds up Louis as "just a other fighter" or "he's only a man like I am." Joe Louis Barrow, is "Mr. Killer himself" and without question still the hardest hitter in the game with Walcott and Elmer Ray somewhat behind. Joe in this all-important department. Good boxer that Walcott is, should he come up with a sorry boxing performance like the nite Joep Maxim upset him, Louis will annihilate him in short order. A one-handed fighter (got hand injury against Maxim) has no business in there with Louis and for that matter, few good "two-handed" boxers have.

Jersey Joe has consistently sought a match with Louis and makes no bounds about giving him a harder battle than did either Tami Maunello or Billy (the Kid) Conn. Thinking on that point we were tempted to ask Walcott if he meant by that statement he would last until say the 10th or 11th round instead of bowing out early as did Tami, or along about the sixth as did the once "Smiling Irishman."

But Dec. 5 is not too far off so-o-o-o... we'll see if the 137 pound Jerseyite bowls over the man who for 24 times (including Walcott) put his precious title on the line against all comers with no questions asked.

The Crispus Attucks basketball schedule for the current season, with Howe High School among the newcomers to the list of opponents, was announced last week.

For the first time, the Tigers will participate in the City Tourney to be held Dec. 18-20 at Butler Fieldhouse.

Six of the Attucks home games will be played at Tech gym, in order to accommodate larger crowds. The schedule is: Nov. 26, Warren Central at Tech; Dec.

5, at Vallonia; Dec. 6, at Monrovia; Dec. 12, Freetown; Dec. 13, at Clear Springs; Dec. 18-20, City Tourney; Jan. 2, Pine Village; Jan. 9, Noblesville at Tech; Jan. 10, Fort Wayne Central Catholic at Tech; Jan. 16, Sacred Heart at Cathedral; Jan. 17, at Freetown; Jan. 24, Swayzee at Marion; Jan. 30, Evansville Lincoln; Feb. 6, Valhalla; Feb. 7, at Windfall; Feb. 13, Howe at Tech; Feb. 14, Cathedral at Tech; Feb. 20, Rossville at Tech; Feb. 21, at Sheridan.

Bowling Notes

By George Whitaker

The major bowling leagues ended the first round of the 1947-48 season and in the Social and Classic loops this was the occasion for what was designated as position week, the teams lining up according to their position in the standings giving the under teams a chance to overtake the team just above or to shorten the margin of games between them.

In the Social league, the number 2 team, Victory Mutual pulled the biggest upset of the week in taking the big end from the leading Link-Belt No. 1. Led by Capt. Earl Turner with 591, the Mutual boys continued to be the stumbling block for the top ranking teams. Thurman Moore shot a 613 for second honor for the losers, a bad luck number for the boys with Wesley Harrell taking first with a 627 count.

The entire Victory Mutual team played like potential champs, the heavy hitting anchor, Leander Perkins being low man with 524. Myers' Produce, the team every one has been watching is now in a bad way as they lost all three to the up and coming Patton Bros. as Virgil Patton shot a 621. Life is beginning to show for the Recorder and they took three from the Mallory five with only four men in the line-up. They looked something like the team that won last year's championship.

Gladys Chestnut, national women's champ, was high for the newsmen with 577. Link-Belt No. 2 lost two to the Letter Carriers as Stanley Porter continued to locate the pocket and hit a 587. Max Cosby was high for the losers with 583. Van Dykes took two from the Senate YMCA with Captain Floyd Tolliver rolling 582 while Wallace Smith hit the honor level with a 610.

In the Classic loop on Friday night, Edgar Hardy and big John Silaz took the honors. Hardy had the highest count of the week rolling a 644 for Sea's Champs and with the help of little Wm. Brown's one the range, 600. The Champs won all three from the second place Cotton Club. Bill Gooch was high for the losers with a 585. The Cotton Club misses the help they got from Candy Jones last year and they are badly in need of a good sixth man as Harold Rutland and Wes Harrell are finding it hard to hold up against the top notch teams.

John Silas shot a 630 but the Porc Barber School lost the big end of their series to Smith's Super Market, John Morris being the big gun for the marketmen with 553. Charlie Henning's 534 was the big reason for Gorge's Liquor taking two from the Woodpeckers; Red Kelly leading the woodbirds with 539. Old timer Luddie Johnson found the range, 600. Para Place as they beat Oscar's Loan two to one. Luddie made a nice 549. Tobak's Liquors took two from the weak Perkins' Grill while the Malleable showed real fight and downed Harvester three to zero.

Ladies' League

Pat's Place 2 Jacobs Bros. 1; Taylor's Gulf Jackson Five 0; Munter Inn 3, Glove Factory 0; Monte Grill 2 Pyramid Sport 1.

Commercial League

Frank Buford led the Commercial loop on Monday night with a 588 as his team beat Block's No. 3 and loop leaders 2-1. James Bacon was high for the losers with 529. Wasson led by Dan Furrman's 598 took all three from the Ayres No. 1 team although Dave Barnes hit 531 for the losers. In other games, Water Co. 2, Woolworth 1; Ayres No. 2 three, Block No. 2 zero; Sears and Sons 2, Harvester 1. Nate Foreman being high again three from Block's No. 1 team.

JACKIE SIGNS CONTRACT FOR $22,500 IN '48, REPORT

NEW YORK (AP)—On his return from Boston last week, Branch Rickey of the Brooklyn Dodgers intimated that first baseman Jackie Robinson had already been signed up for next year.

"I want Jackie with us again," Rickey told newsmen, "because he's a great ballplayer and a gentleman."

Local sports editors did not appear surprised by the announcement although many of them have "laid Rickey out" in print for paying Robinson, as they claimed, only $5,000 last season.

Informed observers of Jackie Robinson informed the Associated Negro Press that the widely acclaimed baseball idol signed up with Rickey at the end of the world series for a salary of $22,500 next year.

Anderson College Cagers Wilson and Milton Start Drills

ANDERSON — A "dream team" was seen shaping up in Anderson College basketball drills here this week, as nationally famous Johnny Wilson was joined on the squad by Bob Milton, former Fort Wayne Central luminary.

Wilson and Milton were No. 1 and No. 2 stars respectively in the high school state tournament of 1946. Both of them broke the tournament scoring record of that time—only to see their marks in turn erased in 1947 by Bill Garret of Shelbyville.

Wilson enrolled at Anderson College last year, and proceeded to demolish the state college scoring record. He wound up the season among the top scorers of the United States—and in his freshman year.

Milton lay out of school a year, before enrolling at Anderson this fall.

The Ravens will open their season Dec. 11 against Olivet College of Michigan. In the Anderson High School gymnasium.

ANDERSON HI CAGERS FEAT GREENFIELD

ANDERSON — Forward Russell Smith, who is the state half-mile champion, led the scoring with 18 points as the Anderson High School basketball squad put away Greenfield 52-50 in the season's opener here last week.

The "shape of things to come" was seen as Sophomore Gene Wilson, younger brother of famed Johnny Wilson, tallied 14 markers to pace the Indian "B" squad to victory over the Greenfield seconds, 38-24.

"OUTH BEND GRID PLAYER PICKED IN AP HIGH SCHOOL POLL

SOUTH BEND — Powerhouse Bob Robertson of the South Bend Washington football squad was an overwhelming choice for a halfback position on the Associated Press all-state high school team, it was announced this week.

NORTHSIDE RAMS WIN GRID GAME FROM TROJANS

The Northside Rams, amateur grid team, led by Earl Bailey won a game on a forfeit from the Trojans, led by James Daniels 1 to 0 Sunday, Nov. 23 at the Riverside Park. The game was scheduled to start at 1:30 but all members of the Trojans team had not appeared.

The Trojans ace quarterback, Edmond Davis, was charged with making big boasts about winning the game but the Rams report that at game time he could not be found.

The Rams report a very good season. They have won nine games and lost two games.

GOLDEN BEARS' ECHO EMERSON JOHNSON AT KY. STATE COLLEGE

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Emerson Johnson, pint-sized "radar shot" of the Shelbyville, Ind., 1947 state basketball champions, recently conveyed his thanks to the Indianapolis Recorder for a pen-and-pencil set which readers of the newspaper awarded him.

Johnson is a student at Kentucky State College here.

Others who have signified their appreciation to The Recorder are Bill Breck, now enrolled at De Pauw University, Greencastle, Ind., and Bill Garrett, who has entered Indiana University.

The awards were conferred on the three Negro and two white senior members of the Shelbyville championship squad, in recognition of their outstanding teamwork regardless of race.

I. U. 16, Purdue 14 Groomes, Grossman Hit Pay Dirt to Win

BLOOMINGTON—In the fiftieth renewal of the "Old Oaken Bucket" gridiron rivalry, Coach "Bo" McMillin's crimson squad edged out Purdue 16 to 14. Mel Groomes star halfback and senior, playing his last game scored a touchdown on a 59-yard pass play.

much injured Taliaferro was in the game a little while as a substitute. McMillin's boys were held scoreless until the third period, when they extended themselves to tally two touchdowns. Lou Mihajlovich blocked a punt on the Purdue 25, falling on it on the Purdue 9. The Boiler-makers stopped the next play, but there was an off-side penalty that moved the ball up to the 4 and Dick Deranek cracked right tackle for the touchdown.

The second touchdown of the crimson squad was made when the McMillin boys took a Purdue punt on their own 10 and carried the ball down the field for 30 yards in eight plays. They hit the scrimmage line to their 41 and then a long pass from Del Russell to Mel Groomes was good for 59 yards, and a touchdown.

Groomes appeared to be bottled up by two Purdue players, but he eluded them, made a spectacular catch on the thirty-yard line and went on to pay dirt. I. U. scored three points more when Norb Adams of the Purdue eleven fumbled and Indiana recovered the ball on the Purdue 11. Russell and Deranek plugged it up to the 14 on the fourth down.

Next Grossman came into the game and kicked the ball over after Russell had held the ball for a fake place kick on the 20. Purdue then took the next place kick and went 66 yards for a touchdown.

Bob DeMoss' pass to Bob Whitmer, ruled complete by interference, blasted the Boiler-makers from their own 38 to the Indiana 39 and that was the first time Purdue had been in Indiana territory. Then it was one smash into the line after another until Purdue finally had a first down on the two-yard stripe. Jack Milto ground into the middle twice and still was inches short of the goal line. From there Norb Adams made it over right guard.

After an exchange of punts, Purdue started pounding again—this time from its own 34. Kenny Gorgal lost two trying to pass. Then there was an incomplete pass and after that Gorgal, trying to pass, circled right end to the Indiana 49.

Dick Bushnell took over from that point and wheeled to the 23. Gorgal again tried to pass but, finding no receivers open, raced to the 15.

Coach Stu Holcomb rushed DeMoss back into the game and he threw a touchdown pass to Ralph Weiger.

20th Century Gabriel Brings His "Tuxedo Junction" Band Here Nov. 30

THREE BLAZERS IN NEW RELEASE

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — Johnny Moore's Three Blazers, who rank among the biggest selling recording artists in the business, have come through with another smash hit in their latest platter for the Exclusive label, "Changeable Woman Blues", which is shaping up as one of the top discs throughout the country.

The Blazers have been busy engaged in recording for the Exclusive label during the past few weeks, waxing several sessions that featured the guitar duo of leaderman Johnny Moore and brother Oscar Moore, who only recently joined the unit after an association of more than a decade with the King Cole Trio.

The Blazers are currently preparing to embark upon a cross-country one-night tour that will carry them through the southwest and Midwest into eastern territory after the first of the year.

BAND ROUTES

The band's west coast one-nights are as follows:

Nov. 13, Albino Gardens, San Diego, Calif.; 14, M. J. Lane Ballroom, Bakersfield, Calif.; 15, Municipal Auditorium, San Bernardino, Calif.; 16, Auditorium, Oakland, Calif.; 17, Municipal Auditorium, San Jose, Calif.; 18, Municipal Auditorium, Fresno, Calif.; 20, Hudson Ballroom, Los Angeles; 23, Triunfo Ballroom, San Francisco; 25, McElroy's Ballroom, Portland, Ore.; 26, Cotton Woods Ballroom, Albany, Ore.; 27, Auditorium, Seattle, Wash.; 29, Williamette Park, Eugene, Ore.

Erskine Hawkins and his "Tuxedo Junction" orchestra with Jimmy Mitchell handling the vocals will swing out in Tomlinson Hall Sunday night, November 30. This will mark the first return date here of the celebrated maestro and trumpeter in several months and looms as one of the most gala dance engagements ever held here.

The band has been featured on the NBC network for the past four years and its tremendous fan mail is in indication of his widespread popularity. Hawkins is an exclusive Bluebird recording artist and his popular songs hit can be found on most any juke box. The band has been busy breaking at dance records all through the country.

Come out and bring your friends and hear one of the world's greatest trumpet players and 31 nationally known dance band at Tomlinson Hall Sunday night, November 30. Advance tickets are now on sale at $1.50. Admission at the door is $1.80.

BILLY ECKSTINE IN NEW RELEASE

NEW YORK — Billy Eckstine, the "Bronze Balladier" with the Golden Voice, will be out with his third MGM record release this week, pairing the new ballads, "Two Loves Have I" and "Fool That I Am", which are being acclaimed as the singing idol's best wax efforts of his illustrious career.

Since joining the MGM waxery a few months ago, Billy has become that label's top-selling artist with such hits as "The Wildest Gal in Town", "On the Boulevard of Memories", "Just An Old Love of Mine" and "This Is the Inside Story".

Billy is currently holding forth in an engagement at the Club Silhouette in Chicago, which will be followed by bookings in Cleveland, Detroit, and St. Louis.

ROY MILTON'S nationally known dance band will swing out in Tomlinson Hall Thanksgiving nite (Thursday), November 27. Advance tickets are now on sale at $1.40.

BUDDY JOHNSON WAXES 4 SIDES

NEW YORK — Buddy Johnson, the young man with the "Magic Touch" at the piano keyboard, took to the local record studios with his orchestra last week to wax four of his own compositions in the first of a series of eight disc dates that have been slated for him before the Dec. 31 deadline on recording.

The dance was previously arranged to be played at the GREEN LANTERN, but due to HEATING conditions was transferred to the modern ARMORY at 7th and MAIN. A capacity crowd is expected.

Theatrical Talent Club to Train Singers and Dancers

FULL LENGTH MOVIE ON NEGRO GREATS PLANNED IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Charles Wherry is the usual quiet, hard-working citizen one meets in all phases of life. Ordinarily, one would pass his name over without much thought, but Wherry has come up with a whole new idea to which he had pledged his life to see fulfilled.

He wants to have the lives and deeds of Negro greats, such as George Washington Carver, the noted Tuskegee scientist, and Booker T. Washington, famed educator, done up in full-length movie features.

Wherry's opinion is that since the film industry has produced pictures depicting the lives of Louis Pasteur, Madame Curie, Alexander Graham Bell, and other outstanding personalities, why can't films on the lives of Carver and Washington be immortalized on the screen for future posterity.

To this end, he has contacted some of the big names in the film industry. Though interested in the idea, major studios are hesitant to adopt the idea because of skepticism as to whether the huge cost, over $500,000, would justify the returns from such a production. RKO's production manager, Dore Schary, has had several conferences with Wherry about the picture, but would like to have some assurance that the public would take to the project.

To obtain the desired results, Wherry believes that a campaign of letters written to Schary by those who would be interested in seeing that the lives of the two great men were filmed, would be prima facie evidence to back the

Both young and old like to dance with Jeanne Crain, but youth wins out in this scene from "Margie", coming today to the Park theater.

"Margie" Starts Tues. At Park Tuesday

Proof that at least one style of dancing has not changed much since 1928 was offered during the filming of "Margie", 20th-Century-Fox's heart-warming Technicolor comedy-drama which opens TUESDAY at the PARK theater.

Set in 1928, the film features a scintillating Charleston number which was the dance craze then. But 175 feverish bobby-soxers who performed the Charleston in "Margie" were agreed that there wasn't much difference between it and present-day jitterbugging. They did agree, however, that it took a bit more energy to perform.

COUNT BASIE COUNTS

Count Basie, whose modern experiments have not taken him down the same path as Park and Glespie, shows what can be done with new ideas superimposed to Kansas City jump style in the Victor of FUTURE FRUSTRATION. This is fascinating and worth many hearings. Slipover finds Jimmy Rushing in real blues voice on the indio BRAND NEW WAGON. Also in strictly modern vein but not boppish is Earle Spencer offering two s.d.s. on Black and White, CONCERTO FOR GUITAR and PIANO INTERLUDE. Both are pleasant, frothy and a shade romantic with neither done in strict dance tempo.

Louis Armstrong, king of them all, leads a group of stars through the medium tempo SOME DAY on Victor in which his vocal trumpet and Jack Teagarden's trombone steal all honors. Other side is FIFTY FIFTY BLUES with Satchmo and Jack taking turns singing and on instruments, finishing with a duet. They have well-known sidemen, but why worry when these two geniuses of jazz give out? Henry King has an album of Latin tunes on Black and White. The six sides are CHICO, RICA PULPAL TICO TICO, MAMA YO QUIERO, CHU CHU and VEM VEM, although they lack the savage punch of uninhibited Caribbean music.

If Charlie Parker's fans okay his solo on the new double-sided Disc "Jazz at the Philharmonic" of

EARLY BELL RINGING FOR MARSHALL UNITS

In direct refutation of the current "business is slow" theory, the Reg. D. Marshall Agency announced today that their artist's bookings are on the increase with the annual wave of New Year's Eve commitments already rolling in well ahead of schedule. Marshall also reports that he has already made definite arrangements for handleaders Roy Milton and Anson Weeks to "ring out the old and ring in the new" right here on the West Coast. Milton is slated for a one-nighter in San Diego, while Anson Weeks and his orchestra play the Auditorium in Sacramento. Weeks played "Auld Lang Syne" at the same spot just two years ago.

Brian Donlevy Is Star At Avenue Sunday

Lyrics to several Rimsky-Korsakoff compositions will be heard for the first time in Universal-International's "Song of Scheherazade," coming SUNDAY at the AVENUE theater.

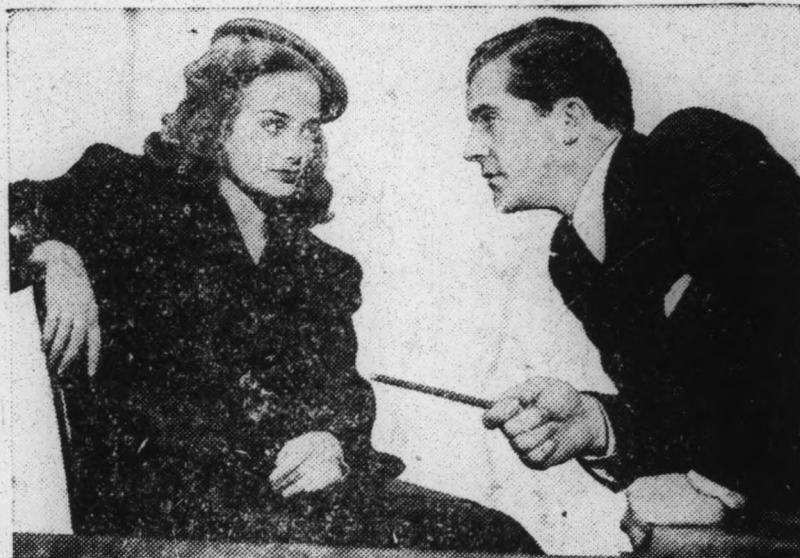

Charles Kullman, Metropolitan Opera tenor, who appears in support of Yvonne De Carlo, Brian Donlevy and Jean Pierre Aumont in the romantic musical film, will sing several of the Russian composer's tuneful numbers for which lyrics were prepared by Jack Brooks.

"Song of Scheherazade," a picturesque Moroccan adventure of Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Arabian Nights" was photographed in Technicolor. Walter Reisch directed.

ILLINOIS JACQUET MAKES DEBUT IN ST. LOUIS AT CLUB RIVIERA

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Illinois Jacquet, youthful "Dynamo of the Saxophone," and his high-flying Sextette will make their debut in the Mound City by opening a week's engagement at Club Riviera here on Friday, Nov. 14.

Following their local nifty engagement, the mighty mite of the tenor saxophone and his gentlemen of five take to the Windy City of Chicago for a week on stage of the Regal theater, starting Friday, Nov. 21.

Jacquet recently augmented his "Sextette" to eight in a with the addition of former Count Basie trombonist J. J. Johnson, who is rated one of the top slyphon men in the business. The rest of the Jacquet crew remains intact, with Joe Newman and Russell Jacquet on trumpets, Leo Parker on baritone sax, Shadow Wilson, drums; Al Lucas, string bass; Sir Charles Thompson, piano, and Illinois on tenor.

MCVEA CLICKS AT DOWN BEAT

Jack McVea and his orchestra staged a triumphant opening at the Down Beat Club on Central Avenue last night (Nov. 13th). At the conclusion of his Los Angeles engagement, the man who originated the famous novelty tune "Open the Door Richard" will take his Exclusive Recording band to Sacramento, where he opens at the Zanzibar Club Nov. 26th, according to the Reg. D. Marshall Agency. During his stay at the Zanzibar, (his fourth return engagement at the popular Northern Cal. night spot), McVea and his entire crew will fly back to Hollywood on December 12 to record several more sides under the 1947 wire for Leon Rene's Exclusive Record firm.

Flam Flint's Revue, Hampton's Ork at Sky Club

AFTER YOU'VE GONE, they'll stick through anything. His cackling alto has no meaning. Willie Smith carves him to pieces. How and McGhee tops Al Kellan on trumpet, but the star of the platter is Les Young and his driving, cavorting tenor sax. Perry Como has a couple of ballads on Victor. TWO LOVES HAVE I AND I NEVER LOVED ANYONE. On the same label, Wayne King does his "Melody of Love" staff on DEDICATION, a recitative over music. Paired is a smooth version of TRAUMEREL.

COUNT BASIE ON WEST COAST

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — Having opened his annual invasion of the west coast with a week's engagement on stage of the Million Dollar Theater here, Count Basie, the "Jump King of Swing", is set to embark upon a brief tour that will carry the Basie band through the states of California, Washington and Oregon on a series of 18 one-night dance dates.

Following his swing through the hinterlands of the Pacific coast, the Count will return to southern California to open a three-week engagement at Meadowbrook Gardens in Culver City on Dec. 2.

During their stay in this area, the Count and his band will be busily engaged in recording sessions for RCA Victor to wax as many plates as possible before the December 31 deadline. The AP-M has placed on recording, Basie waxed eight sides at the local RCA Victor studios last week and is slated to cut an additional 24 sides upon his return from the band's one-nighter tour.

WILLIAMS TO RECORD IN TEXAS

Sherman Williams and his band, now on a one-nighter tour in the Southwest, will take time off next month in Houston, Texas, to record ten more sides for Bullet Records, according to the Reg. D. Marshall Agency.

The well known and popular Flam Flint, Broadway sensational tapster and direct from Club 666 and his revue open this week-end at the Sky Club for an indefinite run. Flint has worked in some of the top spots in the country, including the Blue Grass in Cleveland and the Zanzibar in Nashville, where he made quite a name for himself.

All American Meet Of Bowlers in Detroit Week, Nov. 29-Dec. 14

By GEORGE WHITAKER
Detroit will be the second city to hold an All-American Bowling Tournament as the UAW-CIO announced the scheduling of this unique and history-making event for the week-end of Nov. 29-30, Dec. 6-7, and 13-14 to be held at the Eastern Market Recreation in the Motor City. As a contrast to all other events, this meet is open to all bowlers who wish to compete regardless of race. It is the first step by the CIO in its attempt to smash the un-American restrictions set up by the American Bowling Congress. However, it is not the first event of its kind for right here in Indianapolis, 5 years ago a man we all know and like—Sea Ferguson gave the first all-American tournament in bowling history, but unfortunately, he did not get the support from the National Bowling Association necessary to make it an annual affair. In fact, the N. B. A. accused Sea Ferguson of outlawing bowling although the Naptown bowlers regarded it as a good step toward a better world for bowling not only in this city but for all cities. The NBA refused to sanction the event unless all who participated owned membership cards of NBA.

Mrs. Mary Burnett's Funeral Rites

Funeral rites for Mrs. Mary Rose Dacy Burnett, age 68, 508 Leon st., Saturday, Nov. 15 at St. Joseph's Catholic church. Burial was in Holy Cross cemetery. She died at her home Wednesday Nov. 12.

Mrs. Burnett was known as the "Florence Nightingale of Indiana" during the smallpox epidemic of the early 1920's. She entered the Peshouse as a patient and later was a supervisor under Dr. Norman Jones the director.

Her husband, Ashton Burnett, also a patient of the P. S. House, became an orderly there and later became her husband. Mrs. Burnett assisted in a South Bend smallpox epidemic also. A lifelong Indianapolis resident, she was a member of St. Joseph's Church. Survivors besides the husband are three sons, Patrick Burnett, and Ashton Burnett Jr., both of Indianapolis, Eugene Burnett, of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly of the Indianapolis Fire Department; five daughters, Mrs. Joseph Campbell, Mrs. Albert Combs, Miss Virginia Burnett, Miss Ellen Burnett and Miss Joan Burnett, all of Indianapolis; 19 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral Rites For Mrs. Elizabeth Whiteside

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Whiteside, age 69, 1436 Kappes st., were held Monday, Nov. 17 at First Baptist church West Indianapolis. Burial was in Floral Park. She died at her home Friday, Nov. 14.

She had lived in the city nearly 45 years and was a member of First Baptist church of West Indianapolis. She was born in Sumner County, Tennessee.

Survivors include a daughter, Miss Alice Whiteside, city; four sisters, Mrs. Maggie Beach, Tulsa, Okla.; Mrs. Eliza Graves, Galatin, Tenn.; and Mrs. Nancy Glenn and Mrs. Bettie Thomas, city and two brothers, Thomas Parker and E. Parker.

MOTHERS BLAST JIMCROW WYO. BABY CONTEST

CASPER, Wyo. (AP)—A storm of protest was stirred up by white mothers here Friday when two Negro mothers made public charges that officials of a baby contest, sponsored by the local women's auxiliary of the Order of Moose, had removed their children's names from the running "because of our color."

The charges were made by Mrs. Harry Gray, wife of a veteran, and Mrs. Roscoe Howard. Mrs. Gray said she was forced to withdraw her son, Ronald, 3, who was among the leaders in the baby balloting.

She said she had received an invitation to enter Ronald in the contest, that she had taken him to contest headquarters to be registered and had received a book of the chances to be sold on a victory bond. For each 20-cent chance she sold, Ronald received one vote. Mrs. Gray said she had sold 1,500 chances and friends had added an additional 450.

Bert Johnson, district governor of the Moose lodge, said that Mrs. Gray's charges had been investigated, but that indignation protests continued to pour into the organization. One white mother, also in the contest, said she was banding other mothers together to "pool votes for Ronald" and demand his reinstatement in the competition.

Mrs. Georgia Ann Grimes, Muncie Singer, Will Make Her Debut In Recital Sunday

By Mrs. Willa L. Hunt
MUNCIE — Mrs. Georgia Ann Grimes will make her debut as a soloist Sunday, Dec. 7, in a recital at 3:30 in the Phyllis Wheatley Branch YWCA, presented by her aunt, Mrs. Nannie Shoecraft, who raised her from the age of three years. Mrs. Grimes began singing church plays and concerts at the age of four, and now possesses a soft and sweet soprano voice. She is a native of Muncie, and attended public schools and the Catholic girls' training school in Louisville. She will appear in a song recital of Gospel spirituals, classical numbers under the direction of Mrs. Anna Maria Chinn, who will also accompany her at the piano. As Mrs. Grimes is one of our own talent, born and raised here, whom we have seen grow up, I am encouraging all Muncie people to attend the recital and bid God's blessing upon this young singer. She has appeared in most of the local colored churches and many of the white churches of the city. Following her debut appearance she will become a traveling soloist. Please come, and give her a worthwhile send-off. * In her regular monthly report to the board of directors of the Muncie YWCA day nursery, Mrs. Geraldine Flindley, supervisor, reported an average of sixteen children served per day, and a total of 371 who attended during the month. She also told of a Halloween party which featured masks, place cards, and decorations made by the children, with several gifts presented by the Main drug store, Mrs. Clifford Freund, and Mrs. Foster Goetz. * A home economics class from Ball state teachers college visited the nursery during the month. Members of the board of directors are Mesdames Charles Booher, chairman, and W. R. Braden, Ray Armstrong, Ralph Pettiford, Grover Peele, and Clem Flindley Sr. * A program was presented at Antioch Baptist church last Sunday afternoon. The senior choir furnished music, and solos were sung by Mesdames Lydia Robinson, H. Crawford, and Mary Leavell. The Antioch trio also sang. Readings were given by Mrs. E. Stone, Della Johnson, and Miss Roselee Cole. Rev. I. P. Brown, pastor, presided. The closing sermon of Emmanuel Pentecostal Tabernacle's revival was preached Sunday night by the evangelist, Mrs. Susie Mae Harris, Atlanta, Ga. The meetings were well attended one was baptised, and one was taken into the Tabernacle as a church home. Regularly scheduled meetings will be resumed next week. * The Sunday Bible school, Sunday 10 a. m., devotional services at 11, evening worship at 7:30, prayer services Tuesday at 8 p. m., and preaching and healing services Thursday at 8. S. L. Hunt is pastor. * Bethel A.M.E. church, Rev. H. D. Saunders, pastor: The Martha Adam mission met last week at the home of Mrs. Phono Harris. * The usher booth met at the home of Porter Gridler Thursday night. * Calvary Baptist church, Rev. R. E. S. Utterback, pastor: The Priscilla missionary group met at the home of Mrs. Nathan Coley. The Whitte missionary group met at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Coleman. The Sunshine mission group met at the home of Mrs. Josephine Bennett. The Central Circle met at the church parlor last week. * Trinity Methodist Church, Rev. J. S. Roberts, pastor: The pastor, choir, and congregation will observe Thanksgiving Day with service at Bethel A.M.E. church. Rev. R. Gibson, Shaffer Chapel, will be principal speaker. * The Friends ship Bible class met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Williams. Plans were completed for the annual Christmas dinner to be held at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA Dec. 2. HERBERT MILLS, OF 4 MILLS BROS. NAMED IN SUIT

LOS ANGELES (ANP)—Starting one of the most sensational cases ever filed here by prominent figures, Cleatus Lovings sued for divorce last week.

He accused her of adultery with Herbert Mills, one of Four Mills Brothers quartet.

The brief charges Mrs. Lovings began her association with Mills in 1944 in New York and lasted until February of 1947.

Complainant Lovings, who served as an enlisted man in air corps overseas, was discharged from the service in February of this year. He reckes he lived with his wife from that time until the date of separation, Aug. 3. In addition to an outright divorce, Lovings is asking for community property and bank assets valued at $7,000.

According to friends of the popular and fashionable Mrs. Lovings, a counter suit is being filed denying charges of Lovings and charging her ex-GI husband with cruelty. The couple is well known in local and New York junior social and music circles. The court battle looms as a major battle. Mills could not be found for a statement regarding Lovings' sensational charges of wife stealing at this writing.

a third of your fuel bill

Without question, you are wasting fuel if your house is not insulated. And that means not just the attic floor but the walls as well.

Those are strong statements. We would like to prove them to you. Science tells us that a great amount of heat is lost through uninsulated walls which comprise 60 to 80% of the exterior surface of the house... heat that you've paid to produce! But, Baldwin-Hill black Rock-wool applied in the sidewalls and roof stops this heat loss. The result? Fewer drafts, a healthier home and savings in fuel up to 40%. It's worth investigating. Call us—there's no obligation.

UNIVERSAL MILITARY JIMCROW ASSAILED BY NEW YORK GROUP

NEW YORK (ANP)—Charges that the President's Commission on Universal Military Training and Service to racial equality by recommending that there be no discrimination in peace time conscription and then outlined a plan which "clearly accepted segregation" were made here last week by an organization recently formed to fight bias in military training.

The group is the Committee Against Jimcrow in Military Service and Training, headed by Grant Reynolds, chairman. It numbers among its officers, A. Philip Randolph, international president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, AFL; and Atty. Charles H. Houston and Belford V. Lawson Jr. Its charges were immediately disputed by Truman K. Gibson Jr., Negro member of the President's commission.

Speaking of the plan which the commission recommended for peacetime conscription last June 1, the group charged that the compulsory military training bill, H. R. 4278, was designed to implement the commission's report and would "if adopted, fasten Jimcrow on American youth at their most impressionable age."

"Under the plan, every boy would have to spend six months in a Jimcrow U.M.T. training camp. At the end of this time he could choose to enter the regular army, where there is segregation; or a college ROTC, most of which discriminates; or the National Guard or the reserve component of the army."

The committee pointed out that the report of the President's group contained an appendix which read, "Regulations concerning enlistment of Negroes and formation of Negro units are determined by local authorities of the state, since the primary responsibility of organizing these units rests on the states by law. According to an inquiry of adjutants general of all states, most of them do not plan to have Negro units. Of those that do, all but three require segregation by regulation."

In its attack, the committee pointed out that one of the principal benefits claimed by the report on universal military training is that it would "contribute to the development of national unity by bringing together young men from all parts of the country to share a common experience."

"Can national unity be promoted by subjecting a million young men each year to federally sponsored Jimcrow?" the committee asked. "Boys who have grown up in communities where racial segregation is not practiced would be forced to accept the Jimcrow pattern which would prevail. For many white boys, this would mean learning to regard segregation as the normal way of life; for the Negro, it would mean a permanent degradation of experience of being treated as an inferior citizen by a government which conscripts him in the name of democracy."

RACIAL BIAS IN SOUTH AFRICA MEETS STALEMATE ON UN VOTE

By LUCILE SELZ

FLESHING MEADOWS, N. Y. (NNPA)—The United Nations' first case of racial discrimination—the treatment of Indians in the Union of South Africa—met a stalemate last Friday night.

To give effect to India's charges of discriminatory policies against South Africa, the UN General Assembly failed to reach the necessary two-thirds majority for either of two proposals. One was India's resolution asking the Government of India, Pakistan and South Africa to settle their dispute at a round-table conference on the basis of last year's Assembly resolution on the subject, which censured South Africa.

The vote on the Indian resolution was 21 for and 19 against, with 33 abstentions and one absence. The vote on the other joint resolution was 24 for and 29 against, with three abstentions and one absence.

Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, of India, before the final vote made an eloquent plea for the adoption of the Indian resolution saying if it was not adopted it would mean to millions of underprivileged peo-

Don't browbeat or embarrass your guests. If they do not care for a particular beverage or food. Do have something else to offer them.

Andrei I. Galagan of the Ukraine likened the "color barrier" in South Africa to Nazi racial ideas of superior race. They deplored the treatment not alone of Indians in South Africa but of the millions of colored people living there. Luc Grimard, of Haiti, in an impassioned voice said "many feel for India because this was a cause of justice and human rights." He, like the delegates from Mexico and Iraq, found the case bigger than India and South Africa but one that had to do with all depressed and minority peoples in the world.

"Man must ask a grow higher, closer to the sky," he felt. Sir Maharaj Singh, of India, said before the vote was taken, that if the other resolution instead of India's had been adopted by a two-thirds majority Indian resistance would continue in South Africa.

Harry G. Lawrence, of South Africa, the second speaker of the day-long final hearing of the racial issue, laid his country's defense on one important fact—the granting to Indians of a "limited franchise" by the 1946 Asiatic Land Tenure Act of 1946. By repeal of this Act, Indians would no longer sit in the Provincial Legislatures of Natal and the Transvaal, he said.
